City Departments: Investigation by Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency and Other Agencies.

The Mayor submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, June 17, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed by Your Honorable Body at your last regular meeting on June 10, 1918, appearing on pages 397-398 of the Journal of the Proceedings of the City Council of said date, purporting to authorize an investigation of the activities of the various departments in the City Hall by the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency, the Chicago Clearing House Association, the Building Trades Council, and the Chicago Federation of Labor, and directing that their findings be reported to your Honorable Body.

I withhold my approval of the said order for the reason that I am advised by the Corporation Counsel that the duties that your Honorable Body desires the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency, the Chicago Clearing House Association, the Building Trades Council, and the Chicago Federation of Labor, to perform are imposed by statute as well as by ordinance upon the City Comptroller, and that any attempt of Your Honorable Body to delegate any part of the duties imposed upon the City Comptroller by statute upon any other person or persons is illegal, and for the further reason that I have received a communication from the Chicago Federation of Labor which is forwarded herewith to Your Honorable Body, in which they protest against the passage of the resolution in question, and a communication from the Chicago Building Trades Council in which they also protest against permitting such an order to become a law.

In this connection I desire to say that on January 20, 1918, Your Honorable Body passed a similar order, and on February 4, 1918, I returned it without my approval (page 1978 of the Journal), and in my message of said date I stated, among other things, as follows:

> "If the Council considers that an investigation of City departments is expedient at the present time and will produce beneficial results, I beg to recommend to Your Honorable Body the appointment of a recognized firm of chartered public accountants, such as
> Haskins & Sells;
> M. & L. W. Scudder;
> Marwick, Mitchell, Peat & Co.;
> Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co.;
> Price, Waterhouse & Co.;
> Arthur Young & Co.
> all of whom perform service for Chicago's leading commercial institutions, and none of whom are in any way related to political factions, and whose findings cannot be influenced through any taint of partisanship."

If Your Honorable Body is of the opinion that an investigation of the various departments of the City Hall is necessary or expedient at the present time, I again tender to you for your consideration the above-named list of chartered public accountants, the selection of any one of which will be perfectly agreeable to me.

I, therefore, recommend that the vote by which the said order was passed be reconsidered and placed on file.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

The following communications were submitted with said veto message:

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR,
CHICAGO, June 14, 1918.

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council, Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN—We learned from the public press that you have before you an Ordinance passed by the City Council in reference to an investigation to be made of city affairs by a committee composed of a representative of the Chicago Clearing House Association, the Public Efficiency Bureau, the Building Trades Council and this Federation, and we also understand that the organizations represented in this investigation must bear their own expense or cost of such investigation.

In regard thereto we wish to say that we cannot understand why a privately owned, so-called "Efficiency Bureau," is named in such an undertaking, and it is just as vague as to why the bankers are interested.

Whatever complaint we had in city affairs, it was caused primarily by this efficiency camouflage and the pernicious activities of the bankers in manipulating city funds, and surely we cannot agree when it is framed up so that the defendants shall become the complainants and investigate their own misdoings.

We fear the joker in the proposition of paying our own expenses. Our funds are limited and we would be badly handicapped and would have little chance to carry on an investigation or even keep track of what the bankers and Julius Rosenwald would attempt under the cloak of such an investigation, with their unlimited funds and resources.

We are aware the there are several city departments that have efficiency staffs and any investigation necessary in any matter we are interested in can be handled effectively, adequately and economically by said departments, and we are ready to co-operate with such departments when matters in which we are interested need attention.

We sincerely hope that before signing this Ordinance you will give this protest such consideration and weight as you deem it merits.

Very respectfully,
CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR,

(Signed) JOHN FITZPATRICK,
President.

CHICAGO BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL,
CHICAGO, June 14, 1918.

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council, Chicago, Ill.:

GENTLEMEN—Considering an ordinance passed by the City Council sanctioning an investigation of City affairs by a committee representing the Public Efficiency Bureau, The Chicago Clearing House Association, The Chicago Federation of Labor and The Chicago Building Trades Council providing that the cost be bourne by the organizations represented on the Committee; The Chicago Building Trades Council hereby enters an emphatic protest against such an investigation for various reasons. First, There has been several investigations of the affairs of the City in recent years by various conscientious Committees which has resulted in nothing, other than temporarily throwing into confusion of the various departments and an added expense to the tax payer; Second, The so-called Public Efficiency Bureau which is primarily responsible for the passage of this ordinance, have used very effectual measures to keep secret the names of its members. Consequently, you cannot blame us for distrusting the honesty of their motives; Third, If such an investigation is necessary, which we doubt, we think that the labor interests of Chicago, who bear the greatest burden of taxation, comparative with their wealth, should be the most anxious to acquaint themselves with the condition of the affairs of the City, but the terms of the ordinance place us at a big disadvantage with our limited financial resources, compared with the apparently unlimited resources of the sponsors of the ordinance; And lastly, gentlemen, if such an investigation is really necessary, why not use the efficiency staffs connected with the Finance Committee, the Comptroller's Office and Civil Service Commission to carry on such an investigation, which we believe they are thoroughly capable of doing.

Hoping that you will give this protest careful consideration, we are

Very respectfully yours,

CHICAGO BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL.

(Signed) SIMON O'DONNELL,
President.

Ald. Richert moved to reconsider the vote by which said order, vetoed by His Honor the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Richert moved to pass said order, the veto of the Mayor to the contrary notwithstanding.

Municipal Pier: Lease of Additional Space to U. S. Government.

The Mayor submitted the following communication:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, June 17, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith a draft of a proposed ordinance which I have had prepared and which I recommend that your Honorable Body pass. This ordinance grants to the United States Government the right to use certain parts of the Municipal Pier without compensation during the period of the present war and for a reasonable time thereafter to restore the parts so used to the condition in which they were received and to deliver up possession. The parts granted include the space now occupied and used by the United States Naval Auxiliary Reserve School and other parts not now leased or occupied; and exclude the recreation section of the Pier and the parts now under lease. The premises granted are for the use of the United States Navy.

I have been informed by representatives of the Federal Government that it is not improbable that other parts of the Pier may from time to time hereafter be needed for the use of the Navy; but I have advised such representatives that the question of granting other space should be taken up with your Honorable Body from time to time, as occasion may require.

These representatives further inform me that it is important to the Federal Government that the present ordinance be passed today, if possible, so that they may proceed with certain plans on which they are working.

As indicated by the preamble to the ordinance, the basis on which the same should be passed is that the City of Chicago as well as all other governmental agencies and the people themselves, should do all they can to aid the Government in carrying on the war.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

Unanimous consent was given for consideration of the ordinance submitted with the foregoing communication.

Ald. Richert moved to pass said ordinance.

After debate Ald. Richert moved to amend said ordinance by adding to Section 1 the following language:

"Provided, however that the space to be occupied by the United States Government under the terms of this ordinance, and the compensation, if any, to be paid, shall be determined by the Harbor Board."

The motion to amend prevailed.

The question being put on the passage of said ordinance as amended, the motion prevailed, by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Kenna, Coughlin, L. B. Anderson, Jackson, Iliff, Schwartz, Hickey, Richert, McDonough, Mulcahy, A. A. McCormick, Nance, Fetzer, Guernsey, Woodhull, Furman, Johnson, Govier, Klaus, Cullerton, Krumdick, Kerner, Novak, Ahern, Horne, Maypole, Smith, Kaindl, Olsen, Kunz, Piotrowski, Adamkiewicz, Walkowiak, Touhy, Kavanagh, Powers, Fick, Franz, R. Lynch, O'Toole, Long, Moran, Fisher, Lyle, Hazen, A. O. Anderson, Kostner, Toman, Clark, Thos. J. Lynch.—67.

Nays—None.

The following is said ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, The United States of America is now engaged in war with Germany and Austria, and the City of Chicago as part of the United States is similarly engaged; and,

WHEREAS, It is the paramount duty of the City of Chicago to aid and assist the United States in carrying on and prosecuting such war to a successful conclusion; and,

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago is the owner of certain public property known as the Municipal Pier, the right to occupy and use certain parts of which has heretofore been granted by the city to certain persons, firms and corporations as follows, to-wit: Northern Michigan Transportation Company, Buzzacott Camp & Field Equipment Company, Israel Slavin, Chicago, Duluth & Georgian Bay Transit Company, National Exhibition for Ford Accessories, Inc., Paul W. Cooper and Chicago Concession & Catering Company, and other parts are being used by the Quartermaster's Department of the United States Army; all which said parts will for convenience be herein referred to as the occupied parts; and other parts of said Municipal Pier are now being used by the United States Naval Auxiliary Reserve School under temporary permits and other parts are not being used at all; which parts used by said School and parts not being used at all will for convenience be herein referred to as the vacant parts; and,

WHEREAS, Representatives of the Government of the United States have represented to the Mayor and given him to understand that said Government needs and desires to have possession from time to time of a portion or all of said vacant parts of said Pier (exclusive of the recreation section thereof) to be used by the United States Navy for the training of men for the Naval Service of the United States in connection with the prosecution of said war; and,

WHEREAS, The Mayor has brought to the attention of the City Council the needs and desires of the Government of the United States of and for said vacant parts of said Pier; therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Commissioner of Public Works with the approval of the Mayor is hereby authorized and directed to turn over and deliver to the Government of the United States for the use of the United States Navy, the possession of all or so much and such portions of said vacant parts of said Pier (exclusive of the recreation section thereof) as the duly authorized representatives of the United States Navy shall from time to time in writing request of the Commissioner of Public Works; and that the Government of the United States for the use of the United States Navy as aforesaid shall, without rental or other charge, have the right to keep and retain the possession of all parts of said Municipal Pier of which possession is so turned over and delivered to it for and during the period of the present war and for a sufficient time thereafter to enable said United States Navy to adjust its affairs and deliver up such possession of said parts of said Pier in a proper and orderly manner: provided however, that the space to be occupied by the United States Government under the term of this ordinance, and the compensation, if any, to be paid, shall be determined by the Harbor Board.

SECTION 2. This ordinance is passed and the right to use said vacant parts of said Pier is granted upon the condition that neither the Government of the United States nor said United States Navy will make any changes or alterations in or on said Pier without first procuring the approval thereof in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works; and further, that the Government of the United States, whenever any of said vacant parts of said Pier is no longer needed for the use of said United States Navy shall within a reasonable time restore such parts to as good condition as the same were in when received by said Government, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and deliver up possession thereof to the city.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage and approval.

Communications from the Mayor, City Clerk and Other Officers, Departments and Branches of the City Government.

City Departments: Investigation by the Chicago Clearing House Association.

The Mayor submitted the following communication, which was, together with the communication transmitted therewith, ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR.
CHICAGO, June 24, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I beg to transmit herewith copy of a communication that I have sent to Mr. James B.

Forgan, Chairman of the Chicago Clearing House Association.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed) WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

CHICAGO, June 19, 1918.

Mr. James B. Forgan, Chairman, Chicago Clearing House Association:

DEAR SIR—At the meeting of the City Council last Monday, June 17th, I vetoed an order passed by the City Council at a previous meeting permitting the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency, the Building Trades Council, the Chicago Federation of Labor, and the Chicago Clearing House Association to make an investigation of the activities of the various departments of the city government, each at its own expense.

In the discussion that followed, it was stated by the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Alderman Richert, that the Chicago Clearing House Association had requested that permission be extended to it to make such an investigation.

Nothing has been further from my mind than the thought of preventing, or impeding in any manner, the fullest investigation into any, or all, of the activities of the city government, by any individuals or organizations actuated by sincere and honest motives. On the contrary I have favored, and still favor, as thorough an investigation as it is in the power of any such individuals or organizations to make.

In this connection I beg to direct your attention to my communication to the City Council February 4, 1918, a copy of which I enclose, in which I outlined steps that I had taken to secure an investigation of city affairs, by a committee of representative Chicago business men, that I invited to my office with the purpose of interesting them in a proposal to look over the city's revenues and expenditures. I assured these gentlemen that I would be bound by any suggestions they made, as the result of such an investigation. After some discussion they decided they could not devote the time to the investigation suggested.

I then suggested to the City Council the appointment of a recognized firm of chartered public accountants, such as Haskins & Sells; Marwick, Mitchell, Peat & Co.; M. & L. W. Scudder; Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co.; Price, Waterhouse & Company, or Arthur Young & Company, with whose ability and integrity you are, of course, fully conversant.

I have been actuated in the action that I have taken, in twice vetoing an order giving the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency permission to run riot through the various departments of the city government, solely by the desire, and the determination, to have an investigation that will be honest and thorough, and free from any taint of political partisanship.

May I suggest to you that I am not a pioneer in opposing the granting of permission to the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency to investigate the various departments of the city government. Hon. Carter H. Harrison, my predecessor, of a different political faith, took precisely the same position that I have taken, and in his message to the City Council May 18, 1914, in discussing "Council supervision over city business" gave his reasons at length for so doing.

I recognize, in the fullest measure, the desire and the right of the people to know how the money they are taxed for municipal and other purposes is expended. I am heartily glad of the interest that your association has manifested in the subject.

The Efficiency Division of the Comptroller's office has made an analysis of the city's finanical condition. The city at the present time is operating at an expense per capita smaller than it was in 1912, notwithstanding an increase of 62% in the cost of commodities, and an increase of 13% in labor costs.

There was expended from the Corporate Fund in 1912 $22,411,462, or a net cost per capita of $9.72. There was expended in 1917 $26,220,612. There has been appropriated for the current year $24,814,113 plus $530,000 for Playground Purposes, or a total of $25,344,113, which represents a per capita cost of $9.38. This, of course, does not take into consideration the increased cost of labor and all commodities in the last six years. Assuming that the money was properly expended in 1912, to give the same class of service now that was given then, would necessitate a per capita expenditure of $12.65, or a total appropriation of $34,190,000.

We are operating in spite of the increased cost of everything, and notwithstanding the increase in population and territory, for less money than was appropriated in 1914.

Since the beginning of the year, when the appropriation estimates were made, there have been numerous increases in wage scales, and the end is not yet in sight. The City of Chicago, very properly, is committed to the policy of paying the Union scale of wages, and the only group of employes not organized in a Union receiving the Union scale, is the clerical force. All these employes, driven by the soaring cost of living, are making demands for increased salaries and wages.

In the Bureau of Streets alone, the Union scale for teams has been advanced from $7.00 to $8.00 per day, necessitating an additional expenditure of $120,000 for the remaining six months of the year, or a reduction in the working force.

If the Chairman of the Finance Committee correctly reported your desire when he stated that your association requested authority to make an investigation into the activities of the various departments of the city government, permit me to assure you that I shall support such an application with all the means at my disposal, upon the sole condition that none of the management or employes of the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency shall have connection, direct or indirect, with the work, nor with its planning.

If this meets with the approval of your association kindly so advise me. Under the law the Comptroller of the city has the authority to make the investigation contemplated in the suggestion contained in this letter. If your association consents to act in this matter, I shall instruct the Comptroller to get in communication with you at once, so that the technical requirements of the law may be satisfied.

Yours very respectfully,

(Signed) WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

CHICAGO, June 24, 1918.

To the Honorable the City Council of The City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—The case of Sutter v. The People's Gas Light & Coke Company has been the subject of discussion among the members of Your Honorable Body on the floor of the City Council, and in order that the members of Your Honorable Body may be fully advised as to the status of the said case at the present time I desire to transmit herewith a transcript of the proceedings had in said case in the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois on June 19, 1918, when Mr. Justice Cooke made the following announcement:

"Oral Announcement, June 19, 1918.

BY MR. JUSTICE COOKE.

12227 Cv. Sutter, appellee, vs. The Peoples' Gas Light and Coke Company, appellant.

"This is a motion by Donald R. Richberg for leave to enter his appearance Amicus Curiae; for leave to be heard upon oral argument; for leave to file accompanying suggestions, which are attached to the motion, and brief and argument in support of his motion to appear as Amicus Curiae; that the cause should have been dismissed in the trial court because of fraud and collusion, and that the appeal be dismissed.

"The motion for leave to enter appearance as Amicus Curiae will be allowed.

"That part of the motion which asks leave to be heard upon oral argument is denied.

"There is no showing in support of the proposition —no sufficient showing in support of the proposition that the cause should be dismissed in the court below because of fraud and collusion, and that the pending appeal should be dismissed and that portion of the motion is denied. Mr. Richberg will be permitted to file his suggestions, however, and they will be considered in so far as they may have any bearing upon the merits of the case."

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) SAMUEL A. ETTELSON,
Corporation Counsel.

Vacations of Streets and Alleys: in Matter of Refund of Compensation Paid by Beneficiaries.

The Clerk presented the following communication submitted by the Corporation Counsel, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, June 24, 1918

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—For many years the practice has prevailed in your Honorable Body of passing ordinances vacating parts of streets and alleys no longer needed for public use, upon the condition that the person or corporation to whose benefit such vacation particularly inures shall pay to the city a sum of money by way of compensation. Our information is that the city has received several million dollars on this account.

Our understanding is that substantially all of these ordinances state that the money so paid is in each instance paid "toward a fund for the payment of any and all damages which may arise from the vacation of said" street or alley, as the case may be; although some of the ordinances contain a futher provision that the person or corporation paying the money shall not be entitled to recover any of it.

Recently suits have been brought against the city to recover the amounts so paid on the theory that the same were paid, as stated in the ordinance, toward a fund for the payment of damages and no claims for damages having been presented within five years the person or corporation who paid the money is entitled to recover the same from the city.

In the case of Lockwood and Strickland Co. v. City of Chicago, 279 Ill. 445, which came before the Supreme Court on the face of the ordinance, the court on page 449 said:

"We are not impressed by the argument that the public interest was served by the receipt in the city treasury of the sum of $2694 for its action in vacating the alley. Whether the alley was no longer needed for public use and whether the public interest would be subserved by its vacation could not be made to depend on how much the city could get for its action. The legislative powers of a city must be exercised for the public benefit, but that does not authorize a municipality to sell or bargain legislation as a means of obtaining revenue. It would be a novel proposition to hold that a city, as a condition precedent to the exercise of its lawful power and authority to vacate a street or alley no longer needed for public use, could demand and receive from private parties a sum of money for its action. Such a holding would be dangerous in principle, contrary to good morals and against public policy."

Since that decision we have endeavored to set up by way of defense that the recital in the ordinance that the money was paid toward a fund for the payment of damages was in fact untrue and that such money was in reality paid as compensation for the vacation. Both Judge David and Judge Gridley of the Superior Court have held that the city would not be permitted to set up such defense and have accordingly directed verdicts in favor of the plaintiffs in the cases before them for the amount they respectively paid the city.

We have, for the city, appealed from the judgments in these cases to the Appellate Court and that court probably will pass upon the questions involved some time next Fall or Winter.

Other similar cases are pending in the lower courts.

We direct the attention of Your Honorable Body to the above situation so that you may understand the views of the courts as to the propriety of vacating streets and alleys for compensation and the danger there is that the city may have to refund all moneys received by it for such compensation under the form of ordinance now in use.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) CHESTER E. CLEVELAND,
First Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

SAMUEL A. ETTELSON,
Corporation Counsel.

Ald. Kerner moved that a copy of the foregoing communication be transmitted to the Committee on Compensation.

BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS,
CHICAGO, June 24, 1918.

Hon. Wm. Hale Thompson, Mayor, and Members of the City Council, City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith a copy of my letter to Hon. Samuel Insull, Chairman of the State Council of Defense. This letter is a reply to one received from Hon. Jos. O. Kostner, Chairman of the Home Defense Committee, dated May 31, 1918, which was published in the Journal Proceedings of the City Council of June 3, 1918, page 308.

The writer considered it proper to make answer to the communication in question because of the claim made that this department was knowingly working a hardship on small property-owners.

Will you kindly have my letter to Mr. Insull read and published, and given the same publicity as was the letter received from him.

Thanking you in advance for this courtesy, I am

Yours very truly,

(Signed) M. J. FAHERTY,
President, Board of Local Improvements.

CHICAGO, June 10, 1918.

Hon. Samuel Insull, Chairman, State Council of Defense, Chicago:

DEAR SIR—I feel compelled to give some attention to your letter addressed to Hon. Jos. O. Kostner, Chairman of the Home Defense Committee, dated May 31, 1918, wherein you mention that the Board of Local Improvements in levying assessments for work done through this Department is working a great hardship on a great many people of small means. You also state that this hardship is being imposed upon them while their men are in the service of the Government, thereby inferring that this Department is knowingly working a hardship on poor people. You further suggest that I, as President of the Board of Local Improvements, be invited to attend a conference for the purpose of taking some action to prevent this supposed injustice.

First, let me call to your attention the fact that no proceedings for improvements originate in this Department. All such proceedings are started by petition of the property owners themselves or by Council Order. Under the law, when the Board receives a petition from property owners or an order from the Council, it is compelled to proceed with the improvement. In every case, where an improvement is to be made, and there is opposition to it, the Board insists that the property owners file a majority petition, carrying the majority of front foot frontage favoring the improvement before the work is proceeded with. If, at the public hearing there seems to be some question as to whether the people desire the improvement or not, we allow them 30 days in which to file a majority petition with the Board. When this is done, the improvement is either stayed for one year or abandoned entirely. I believe this has been the custom of the Department since its inception. I think you will agree with me, that when such a ruling prevails, no hardship can be worked upon the people, for in every case the majority rules.

No improvement in the past has had unanimous consent or will any improvement in the future have the unanimous consent of all the property owners. If improvements were delayed until agreeable to all the property owners, very few improvements would be made. It is also true that very few improvements are ever made that do not work a hardship on some one. My experience is that the poor people in whom you are taking such an interest are the very ones demanding improvements, even faster than the Department can do them. After three years presiding at public hearings I can truthfully say that the greatest objectors are the well-to-do and wealthy classes, who can afford to employ attorneys to fight the City and get reductions in their assessments through the courts. In consequence, all the money these attorneys are able to save their wealthy clients is added to the burden of the poor property owners, making his assessment very much higher than theirs. This Department is helpless to remedy that condition as we are operating under legislation passed by the State Legislature and not the City Council.

Then, too, there are from 35,000 to 50,000 men employed directly and indirectly through the Board of Local Improvements. Most of them are men past the military age, and have no experience in any other line of work. Many have sons in the army and navy. These men are represented in Chicago by 57 different labor organizations. Upon two occasions, in the past three months these 57 labor representatives visited the offices of the Board of Local Improvements and complained to me personally that the Board was not getting out as much work as they thought it should and that 60% of their men were out of employment. They also stated that this class of labor is not able to leave Chicago and go to Southern cities where employment on Government work is plentiful, because their homes and families are located here.

Personally I feel keenly the insinuation in your letter that the Board, of which I am the head, should knowingly work a hardship on poor people. I have lived in Chicago since 1880 and have been an active business man since 1885. I have had business transactions with thousands of small property owners and working people and I do not think there is one who will say they did not get fair treatment or that I knowingly worked a hardship on them. The other members of this Board are also well-known men and resent the insinuation contained in your letter. We may differ as to what should be done about spending money for Public Improvements at this time. If the influence and activities of the State Council of Defense were used in securing for Chicago the location of some of the great Government works which are being located elsewhere, this great army of unemployed would be given ample opportunity to make a decent living, and could also be of great aid to the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus in their war work and could invest their savings in Liberty Bonds which is the safest investment in the world and pays 4½% interest while the banks only pay 3%.

It is not yet too late for your Committee to get action in this direction. When this war is over, there will be a great need of work for those who come back, as well as for those now employed in Government activities. This City is in sore need of a great many public improvements. The sewer system is the most wretched of any city in the country. Millions of dollars must be spent in this direction alone. We also need great, comprehensive subways, which will cost millions to build. There are several great thoroughfares in Chicago that need widening and improvement. I will mention, for example, Ogden avenue, South Water street, Western avenue, etc. A great drive along the Lake Front from 12th street to South Chicago would relieve Michigan avenue of its congestion. There are nearly a dozen places where bathing beaches should be built. Hundreds of miles of street railroad tracks need rehabilitating immediately. The wretched condition of these tracks is ruining the pavements and costing the City hundreds of thousands of dollars in repairs, unnecessarily, and also costing contractors thousands of dollars beyond what they figured to spend during the guarantee period of their work. You also know the Gas Company has need to spend millions of dollars for larger gas-mains and also for repairing those that in many cases are practically rotted out. There are thousands of alleys that should be paved, for sanitary reasons, if for no other. Hundreds of miles of street pavement is needed in the well-to-do sections of the city.

I mention all these needed improvements, not because they should be done now during the war, but on account of the existing laws that require two and three years of litigation in the courts before the actual work of construction can go on. The time to arrange for these improvements is now, during the war. Should we wait until the war is over and then start proceedings, spending as before stated two and three years in court, we can be of little or no help to those who need employment at that time. A small amount of money is needed to carry these improvements to a point where the work can go on immediately after the war if it seems advisable to do so. At the same time the improvements can be abandoned if conditions require it.

Chicago and its Public Utility Corporations can well afford to begin arrangements to spend at least One Billion Dollars on these needed improvements at the close of the war. These improvements will add greatly to the value of taxable property and this money will be returned to the municipality in the form of added taxation.

Let us start now to arrange for these improvements which will care for the unemployed. Working people need no sympathy, what they want is steady employment and good wages.

The Board of Local Improvements will go on with its work in the future as it has in the past, at least during my term of office, and we will insist that when an improvement is to be stopped or abandoned the order must come from the City Council or the State Council of Defense and they will have to assume the responsibility for it.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) M. J. FAHERTY,
President.

The following is the report recommended for publication in the foregoing report:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE,
CHICAGO, June 24, 1918.

Hon. Thos. J. Lynch, Chairman, Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light:

DEAR SIR—Complying with the request of your Committee of June 20, I transmit herewith a summary of the more important data which has been submitted to your Committee from time to time by the Departments of Finance, Gas and Electricity and Public Service and on which the compensation features of the pending telegraph ordinance are based.

Sheet No. 1 gives the items on which the compensation is to be paid and the rate per unit of plant and total revenue from each item under the ordinance which expired December 16, 1917, under the tentative schedule to which the Western Union Telegraph Company first agreed, and under the proposed ordinances. The difference between the three schedules are briefly as follows:

The second schedule increased the compensation to be paid for the first item, 300 per cent; for the second item, 50 per cent; for the third, 100 per cent; for the fourth, 50 per cent; and for the fifth, 100 per cent. These figures were based merely on the present general tendency to higher costs. This schedule also introduced the entirely new feature of compensation for the sixth item of underground duct feet, on which no compensation had heretofore been paid. The Company agreed to the principle of paying compensation for underground conduit and suggested a rather elaborate method of computation. After numerous conferences they agreed to our simpler plan of a fixed charge per duct foot, regardless of its use. The question of the proper charge then arose, and since this compensation is a new feature in telegraph ordinances we had practically no precedents to guide us. As shown by sheet No. 2, out of twenty-four cities investigated only one receives direct compensation from an Interstate Telegraph Company for space occupied by its conduits. That one is St. Paul, and the compensation there, when figured on a simple duct foot basis such as proposed amounts only to .26 of a cent per foot, which we considered to be low. In this dilemma we turned to comparative statistics affecting other utilities. While the conditions are not of course exactly parallel, the computation summarized on sheet No. 4 illustrates the method by which the Departments arrived at an estimate of one cent per duct foot as a fair compensation. The Company felt that this was excessive, and in view of the conditions in other cities as shown by sheet No. 2, together with the fact that, unlike the case of the Telephone Company, only a small proportion of the business of the Telegraph Company is local, the Departments finally agreed to consider .7 of a cent as a reasonable compromise between the one cent which we had originally asked and the .5 of a cent which the Company had at an earlier time submitted.

Sheet No. 4 shows the location and extent of the underground conduit system of the Western Union Company in Chicago.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of St. Louis vs. Western Union Telegraph Company, 148 U. S. 92, laid down the principle which has since been followed that telegraph companies operating under the "post roads" Act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866, cannot be subjected to a tax for the privilege of operating within a municipality, but that a charge in the nature of a rental may be exacted by such municipality for the use of streets, alleys and public places.

We also attach hereto letters from the cities of New York and Baltimore, typical of those received in answer to our inquiries.

I have referred throughout to the Western Union Company because it is the largest to be considered and all the facts affecting it apply as well to the smaller companies. The Western Union Company have freely given us all information asked for, have thrown their records open to us, and have shown every indication of being willing to co-operate with the City in arriving at a reasonable adjustment. The negotiations have extended over a period of several months, and have involved a very thorough study of the many complicated phases of the situation by your Committee, the sub-committee and the Departments of Finance, Gas and Electricity and Public Service with the co-operation and advice of the Corporation Counsel. As indicated to some extent by Sheet No. 2, there is a wide diversity of practice among the various cities in methods of figuring a proper compensation, and since the Corporation Counsel advised us that the simple method based on the gross receipts as in Omaha is not possible here, the Departments feel that the method embodied in the pending ordinance is the simplest and most adequate of any which we have considered. It gives us an amount of compensation approximately 1800 per cent greater than that paid under the old ordinance; and greater, so far as we have been able to ascertain, than that secured by any other city except New York. In proportion to the size of the two cities and the amount of business in each, it is much greater than in New York. We therefore feel that the proposed rates represent a long step in advance from the previous practice here and elsewhere, and a very advantageous ordinance for the City of Chicago.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) JOHN P. GARNER,
Commissioner of Public Service.

CITY OF NEW YORK,
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,
NEW YORK, March 29, 1918.

Hon. Eugene R. Pike, Comptroller, City of Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR—In answer to your letter dated March 26, 1918, requesting information concerning payments made by the Western Union Telegraph Co., to the City of New York as compensation or occupation tax or compensation for use of underground conduits, I advise you that the Western Union Telegraph Co. will pay for the year 1918, a "special franchise" tax of $21,968.35, on an assessment of $927,770, representing the value of the company's right to maintain and operate its wires, etc., in the public streets and over public waters, and the value of the property used in connection with the exercise of such right. In addition the company will pay a tax of $5,652.40 for property such as switchboards, wires etc., valued at $237,200, and located on private rights of way.

The underground conduits used by the Western Union Telegraph Co. are leased from the Empire City Subway Co., to whom the telegraph company pays its rentals. The Subway Company's franchise to maintain and operate its property provides substantially for a sharing of the profits with the City of New York when such profits exceed a certain ratio of the capital invested, but, although the subway company has been operating for twenty-six years, no payment on account of excess profits as provided by its agreement with the City has been paid to the City. About twelve years ago the City started an action against the Company to obtain an accounting of the profits. This action is still pending in the courts.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) CHARLES L. CRAIG,
Comptroller.

CITY OF BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

Department of Legislative Reference, Horace E. Flack, Executive.

April 2, 1918.

Mr. Eugene R. Pike, Comptroller, Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR—Your letter of March 26th, requesting information as to the methods of taxing the Western Union Telegraph Co., has been referred to this office.

The Western Union Telegraph Co., in this city pays a state franchise tax of 2½% on gross receipts, the returns from this tax in 1917 being $1,048.14 on a basis of $41,925.70.

The Western Union operates in Maryland through a subsidiary domestic corporation. The real property of this corporation is assessed at full value where located, and on such value the full state and local taxes are imposed. Poles and wires are taxed as real property.

There is an additional assessment on the easement incident to the poles, the valuation of which in the city of Baltimore is reached by a complicated formula. In other parts of the state, however, the State Tax Commission has ordered an additional value on each pole to reflect the easement value. The assessed valuation of poles in the counties in 1918 is $7.50 a piece.

In the city of Baltimore, the Company is also required to pay a license tax of $2.00 per pole. In 1917 the receipts from this source were $242.

There is no specific tax on the personal property of domestic public service corporations. The value of tangible personal property is reached through the shares of the company.

The assessment of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in Baltimore for 1917 was as follows:

No. of shares, 600; aggregate assessment, $500,498; Credits (which are real property, poles, wires, easements), $474,780; Net aggregate assessment, $25,718; Net assessment per share, $42.86.

The sum of $25,718 represents the value of the instruments, office equipment and other tangible personal property. This net tax value of $25,718 is subject to full city and state rates of tax (which for 1917 were $2.13 and 36 5/12 cents for $100 respectively).

I cannot give the exact amount paid on real estate, because, the real estate is situated in various tax jurisdictions where the rates differ. I estimate that 1½% would probably represent the average local and state tax paid on this amount.

It should be explained that taxes on the net value of shares of domestic public service corporations are paid at the residences of the stockholders. Where such shares are held by nonresidents they are given a taxable situs at the principal office of the company which is the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

The Western Union pays conduit rentals to the city at the rate of 5½ cents per duct foot; the returns in 1917 were $5,137.26. So far as I am informed this represents all of the public charges against the company.

Trusting this will give you the information desired, I am,

Very truly,

(Signed) HORACE E. FLACK,
Executive.

WHEREAS, The corporations known as Polish Manual Training School for Boys and St. Hedwig's Industrial School for Girls occupy land belonging to the Catholic Bishop of Chicago, located on the east side of Harlem avenue south of Park Ridge boulevard and just outside of the limits of the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, There is a tract of land within the city limits on the west side of Harlem avenue opposite the aforesaid property which is too low to drain by gravity into the city sewer now constructed in Harlem avenue and which naturally drains east and across the property first above mentioned; and,

WHEREAS, It is entirely practicable for the said corporations to install a pump and sewers to discharge the sewage from the said property occupied by them into said Harlem avenue sewer, and the City desires permission to drain the said land within the city and its surface waters across the said lands of the Catholic Bishop of Chicago and to construct therein a sanitary sewer to be connected with the said sewers of said corporations, and it would be of mutual advantage to all parties to enter into an agreement whereby the drainage and sewerage for both of said tracts of land can be adequately provided for in connection with the said Harlem avenue sewer; therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a contract for and on behalf of the City of Chicago with the Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a corporation sole, and the corporations known as Polish Manual Training School for Boys and St. Hedwig's Industrial School for Girls, whereby the land belonging to the Catholic Bishop of Chicago lying outside of the city limits on the east side of Harlem avenue extending south from Park Ridge boulevard to Ibsen avenue may be drained into the main brick sewer now in Harlem avenue and the City may maintain and operate a storm water sewer across the said property of said Catholic Bishop of Chicago of sufficient capacity to provide surface drainage for the land within the city limits lying immediately west thereof, and providing for the construction of a sanitary sewer in the future under the terms and conditions named herein as hereinafter set forth. Said contract shall be countersigned by the City Comptroller and approved by the Mayor and shall be in substantially the following form:

WHEREAS, The Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a corporation sole of the State of Illinois, is the owner, and the Polish Manual Training School for Boys and the St. Hedwig's Industrial School for Girls, corporations of the State of Illinois, lessors, having a tenancy in common of the property on the east side of Harlem avenue extending south from Park Ridge boulevard to Ibsen avenue in the southwest quarter (S. W. ¼) of Section thirty-one (31), Township forty-one (41) North, Range thirteen (13), East of the Third Principal Meridian, County of Cook and State of Illinois, said Harlem avenue being the east limits of the City of Chicago at that locality, which corporations are hereinafter collectively called the Orphanage; and,

WHEREAS, The said Orphanage has now no adequate outlet for the sewage from its buildings, which are now or hereafter may be located upon said property, and is desirous of securing an outlet for the disposal of its sewage; and,

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago, hereinafter called the City, has now constructed and has in operation a main sewer in said Harlem avenue south of Ibsen avenue, which is adequate to receive and carry the sewage from said Orphanage and its buildings, after the said sewage is elevated by proper apparatus; and,

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago is desirous of draining the natural surface water from the area of land lying west of said Harlem avenue and within the corporate limits of said City (which area naturally drains east through and across the property of said Orphanage), which is too low to drain by gravity into the said sewer in Harlem avenue; and,

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago is desirous of providing an outlet for the future sanitary sewers for said tract of low land; now,

Therefore, In consideration of the performance of the obligations herein undertaken, and of the rights and privileges herein granted, it is mutually agreed between the Catholic Bishop of Chicago, The Polish Manual Training School for Boys and the St. Hedwig's Industrial School for Girls, and the City of Chicago that:

The City of Chicago hereby gives and grants in perpetuity to said Orphanage the right, privilege and authority to connect a tile pipe sewer of not more than fifteen (15) inches internal diameter with existing main brick sewer now in Harlem avenue, at the intersection of Ibsen avenue, and under the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Sewers of the City of Chicago, to construct, maintain and operate a sewer of not more than fifteen (15) inches in diameter, together with the necessary apparatus to elevate the sewage, from such connection to the various buildings that now exist or may hereafter be built upon the property of said Orphanage, for the purpose of discharging the sewage and sub-drainage water from said buildings and grounds into and through said City sewer; provided that the said Orphange shall not permit any roof or surface water to enter the said sewer through the connection herein provided.

The said Orphanage grants to said City, without expense for rights of way, the right and privilege to construct, maintain and operate a storm water sewer across the property of said Orphanage of sufficient capacity to provide surface drainage for the low lying property lying west of Harlem avenue, thirty acres, more or less, in extent, which naturally drains across said Orphanage property; provided that the City of Chicago shall not permit any sewage, trade wastes or other foul liquids to be discharged through said storm water drain to be laid across the property of said Orphanage; and further that the said City shall save said Orphanage harmless from expense or damage caused by the construction of said storm water sewer.

The said Orphanage further agrees that whenever the City shall install a system of sanitary sewers for the aforesaid low tract of land lying west of Harlem avenue, within the corporate limits, and which has no adequate gravity outlet for sanitary sewers therefrom, the said Orphanage will furnish right of way and permit the said City to construct therein a sanitary sewer and allow it to be connected with the said sanitary sewer of the Orphanage herein provided for.

The said City shall bear the expense of any additional apparatus necessary to elevate the sewage from the aforesaid low tract of land.

The Orphanage shall bear the additional expense of operating the apparatus for lifting the sewage from the Orphanage and from the aforesaid low tract of land.

It is agreed that before permits shall be issued by the City of Chicago for the connection of the sewer from the Orphanage to the City sewer plans for the sewer system of the Orphanage shall be approved by The Commissioner of Public Works, Superintendent of Bureau of Sewers, and Engineer of Board of Local Improvements, of the City of Chicago.

It is further agreed that before permission is granted for the construction of the storm water drain or the sanitary sewers to drain the property within the City of Chicago across the land of the Catholic Bishop of Chicago plans for said drains and for said sewers shall be approved by the Catholic Bishop of Chicago.

In witness whereof the City of Chicago has caused this instrument to be signed by its Commissioner of Public Works, countersigned by its Comptroller and approved by its Mayor, and the remaining parties hereto have caused the same to be executed by their duly authorized officers and their seals to be affixed thereto this ——— day of ———, A. Excelsior Steel Furnace Co.: Reconsideration of Ordinance Authorizing Switch Track.

The Mayor submitted the following communication:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, June 28, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith a communication from the Comptroller, recommended by the real estate agent, in reference to a switch-track ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the last regular meeting. As this communication points out, the beneficiary of this ordinance is a firm that has filed objection to the general taxes.

Some time ago an order was passed by your Honorable Body directing that no privileges be extended by the City to any of the 1917 tax objectors.

If it is not the policy of the City Council to grant favors of this character to persons who oppose the collection of revenue by the city, then the vote by which this ordinance was passed should be reconsidered.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

The following communication was submitted with the foregoing communication:

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE,
CHICAGO, June 28, 1918.

Hon. William Hale Thompson, Mayor:

DEAR SIR—Your attention is respectfully called to a switch-track ordinance for the Excelsior Steel Furnace Co., passed at the last meeting of the City Council, page 512 of the "Council Proceedings".

The matter is brought to your notice because the Excelsior Steel Furnace Co. was one of the many corporations and individuals that filed objections to the 1916 tax levy, and that have also brought suit protesting the collection of the 1917 taxes.

Some weeks ago an order was introduced by Alderman Cullerton and passed by the City Council directing that no privileges be extended by the City to any of the 1917 tax objectors.

Respectfully,

(Signed) EUGENE R. PIKE,
Comptroller.

Ald. Powers moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the foregoing communications was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Powers moved to refer said ordinance, together with the said communications, to the Committee on Local Industries.

Hon. William Hale Thompson, Mayor of the City of Chicago, City Hall, Chicago, Illinois:

MY DEAR SIR—The Chicago Association of Commerce desires to call your attention to the following resolution, adopted by the Executive Committee on Thursday, June 20, 1918:

"WHEREAS, The Municipal Improvement Committee on April 2 passed a resolution favoring the metering of Chicago's water supply as recommended in the report of the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency, dated December, 1917; and

WHEREAS, The Engineers' Subdivision of the Association has given study to this same question for more than a year, and on June 3 adopted a resolution favoring the installation of meters as recommended in the report of the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That The Chicago Association of Commerce favor the general plan of metering the water supply of the City of Chicago as recommended in the report of the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency; and be it further

July 4, 1918: Proclamation.

The Clerk presented the following proclamation submitted by the Mayor, which was ordered published and placed on file:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, June 27, 1918

PROCLAMATION.

Thursday, July 4th, 1918, marks the one hundred and forty-second anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. By universal consent, the day which we are about to celebrate has been recognized, under the name of Independence Day, as a holiday in all the States of the Union. Its purpose is to perpetuate among the American people the memory of the historic drama which was enacted at Philadelphia on July 4th, 1776, when the representatives of the thirteen colonies, meeting in Independence Hall, proclaimed the great fundamental human rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, affirmed that government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed, and declared that henceforth the American colonies should be independent States, free from all political connection with Europe.

Independence Day is justly esteemed the first and greatest of our national holidays. And on this anniversary, more than ever before, it is fitting that our people should refresh their patriotism and Americanism at the fountain of the Declaration of Independence, that the precious heritage of human freedom and consecration to the principle of America for Americans shall be passed on unimpaired to the generations which are to come.

Therefore, in addition to the various public observances which will take place on this solemn and historic anniversary, I suggest that the people of this great American city make it a point to read again, in its entirety, the Declaration of Independence and reaffirm their allegiance to the great American principles which it enshrines.

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

"Chicago Plan" Commission: in the Matter of an Additional Appropriation.

The Clerk presented the following communication submitted by the "Chicago Plan" Commission, consideration of which was deferred:

CHICAGO PLAN COMMISSION,
CHICAGO, June 28, 1918.

To His Honor, the Mayor, and the City Council of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—We realize, and we appreciate, the difficulties with which your Finance Committee was confronted in making up the budget which will be presented to you today; and under ordinary conditions we would not have addressed a communication of this kind to your honorable body.

We feel, however, seeing conditions in the light we do, that we have a duty to perform which we cannot shirk. Chicago must move forward. It cannot stand still. The Chicago Plan Commission is in favor of mobilizing to the greatest possible degree the finances of this country for war needs; but such mobilizing should under no circumstances be allowed to interfere with the work necessary to make us ready for peace.

The people have been justly blamed for being unprepared for war, and the criticism could justly be heaped upon them if they do not now prepare during war for peace. Foresight must be put into our vocabulary. If ever at any time wisdom and foresight are required, that time is now. No matter what additional demands the nation may make upon us, to conserve the health, the general well being, and effectiveness of our people in these trying times is to serve our nation with patriotic intelligence.

We do not advocate the spending of large sums of money, nor do we advocate projects which will use materials necessary for the carrying on of the war. We urge upon you, however, the necessity for making necessary plans and preparations for the carrying on of great city Plan projects at such time as the war necessities are over.

The flower of our young men, upon whose shoulders we expected to place with confidence the development of our country, is marching to the front. How many will return crippled, blind, or otherwise incapacitated, no one can foretell. Upon their return they will be confronted with lack of employment, possibly depleted in health, and will require the work, nurture, and protection our preparedness program then can afford them.

Is it not plainly the duty of the municipality to be ready at that time to carry on great municipal construction projects requiring the use of money, labor, and material,preparation for which must be made in advance. Prepare so that you can give workingmen employment and not make them objects of charity. We can well afford to pay the premium of*"preparedness'* for the insurance of future industrial and economic protection.

Our battle for humanity in the war zone should not overshadow the need for making ceaseless efforts at home.

France, England and Canada are setting us a wonderful example. Our own sister American cities—New York, St. Louis and Detroit,—are going forward with municipal improvements. Shall Chicago stand still—with a plan admittedly in the interests of the entire city and of all its people?

The Plan of Chicago is on the road to accomplishment in many directions. When it is finished the remarkable destiny of Chicago will be assured.

May I urgently implore you to advocate putting into the budget the items we have asked for? Remember, please, that we are actively engaged in work on a number of very important matters.

To interrupt now the years of patient toil and endeavor of the Chicago Plan Commission would cause a break in its exceedingly important work, which would be calamitous in its effect upon the welfare of the entire city.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) CHAS. H. WACKER,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Request for Additional Appropriations.

The Clerk presented the following communication submitted by the Corporation Counsel, consideration of which was deferred:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, June 28, 1918.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I beg to advise Your Honorable Body as to the situation presented by reason of the failure of the Finance Committee to provide any additional funds for the purpose of meeting the necessary expenses connected with conducting the litigation and other law business of the City.

In the annual appropriation ordinance, passed March 14, 1918, an appropriation of $16,500 was made for personal services, $6,000 for impersonal services, and $250 for passenger transportation, besides sums aggregating $2,900 for office supplies and expenses of similar nature. The total appropriation for the expenses of the office outside of salaries was $26,150. The inadequacy of these sums is clearly shown by the fact that in 1917 $43,850.50 was appropriated for personal services alone and $10,000 for impersonal services, and in 1916, $38,000 was appropriated for personal services and $7,000 for impersonal services, but notwithstanding the fact that the appropriations in the latter year were considerably in excess of those appropriated in 1918, unpaid bills were left which had to be appropriated for in 1917 amounting to $13,868.51 for personal services and $1,314.60 for impersonal services.

These facts are doubtless generally known but I wish to point out the consequences which must inevitably result from the lack of additional appropriations which are now necessary to carry on the work of the office. At the present time the sum appropriated for personal services has been exhausted, as has each of the other appropriations before referred to for expenses connected with the office, except that covering impersonal services, and expenses have already been incurred against the latter fund to the full amount remaining unexpended at this time. The expenses which are constantly accruing and which must be met if the city is not to let its litigation go by default include appearance fees in the Circuit, Superior, County, Appellate and Supreme Courts, clerk's costs, the printing of briefs and abstracts of record in every case taken to the Appellate or Supreme Court averaging between one hundred and one hundred and fifty dollars for each case, court reporting and other essential items which create expenses in every litigated matter, the payments of which cannot be avoided.

I desire to call your special attention to one particular case which it will be impossible to prosecute any further if additional funds are not forthcoming, namely, the case of City of Chicago v. State Public Utilities Commission, in which the city has sought to retain its jurisdiction over the street railways operating within its limits, and which is now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States upon writ of error. In order to prosecute the case in that court it will be necessary to pay in advance the clerk's costs of $460.00 and cost of printing the record amounting to $245.00, a total of $705.00 of which the sum of $25.00 has been paid. There will also be the cost of printing the briefs to be filed in the latter court which will amount to between one hundred and fifty and two hundred dollars. In that same case the city owes the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Illinois the sum of $274.30 for the preparation of the record in the case which is now on file in the United States Supreme Court. The case is one of large importance to the people of Chicago and should not be allowed to fail by reason of the failure of the City Council to appropriate money with which to carry it on.

It is impossible to refer in detail to the very great number of cases in which the city's interests are involved and which must be prosecuted or defended by the Law Department. I earnestly request the following additional appropriations:

CORPORATION COUNSEL'S OFFICE.

For personal services	$20,000.00
For impersonal services	10,000.00
For printing, stationery and office supplies	2,500.00
For passenger transportation	200.00

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

For impersonal services	$ 1,500.00

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
BUREAU OF COMPENSATION,
CHICAGO, June 27, 1918.

To the Honorable, the Mayor, and Members of the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith ordinance authorizing the City Comptroller to accept the sum of $1,500.00 in behalf of the City of Chicago for any claims it may have to alleys in the block bounded by Arthington street, Taylor street, South Campbell avenue and the right of way of the P., C., C. & St. L. R. R.; also the east-and-west alley in the block bounded by Taylor street, Fillmore street, South Campbell avenue and the P., C., C. & St. L. R. R.; also authorizing the Corporation Counsel to consent to a decree in each of the three cases at present pending under the Burnt Record Act to quiet title to above-mentioned alleys.

The alleys in question were vacated by an instrument filed for record on March 19, 1892, and have been occupied ever since by several parties. The City has constructed sidewalk and curbing across the entrance of the north-and-south alley in the block first mentioned, and in view of the above facts I would recommend that the accompanying ordinance be referred directly to the Committee on Compensation for its consideration.

Yours very truly,

At the intersection of West 39th street with South Kedzie avenue, 13.20 feet above datum.

The above elevations as fixed shall be measured from Chicago City datum as established by the City Council of the City of Chicago.

The roadways of the several streets specified above between the points hereinbefore described, and also the roadways of all streets and alleys intersecting the several streets specified above and extending from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of each of said above specified streets between the points hereinbefore described, (except the intersections of South St. Louis avenue, South Homan avenue and South Spaulding avenue with West 38th street) shall be so graded that after being thoroughly puddled and rolled with a roller of ten (10) tons weight until the roadbeds are thoroughly compacted and after the pavement hereinafter described shall have been placed thereon, the surface of the pavement at the center of the finished roadway of each of said above specified streets and the center of the finished roadways of all intersecting streets extended from the curb line to the street line produced on each side of each of said above specified streets shall be at the elevation of the top of the curbing hereinbefore described, and the surface of the finished roadways at the summits in the gutters between catchbasins and adjoining the roadway face of the curbing shall be three (3) inches below the top of said curbing and the surface of the finished roadways at the catchbasin inlets in the gutters adjoining the roadway face of the curbing shall be ten (10) inches below the top of said curbing.

The slope of the gutters adjoining the roadway face of said curbing shall be uniform from the summits to the catchbasin inlets, and a transverse section of the finished surface of the pavement shall be an arc of a circle passing through the said gutter elevations and the elevation of the center of said finished roadways, at every part of the roadway of each of said above specified streets and at every part of the roadways of all streets intersecting the several streets specified above, between the points hereinbefore described.

In all intersecting alleys hereinbefore specified at the street lines produced of said above specified streets the surface of the finished pavement adjoining the curbing shall be even with the top of the curbing, and the surface of the finished pavement at the center of the roadway of said alleys shall be three (3) inches below the top of the curbing, and a transverse section of the finished surface of the pavement at the street lines produced of said above specified streets shall be an arc of a circle passing through the surface of the pavement adjoining said curbing and the surface of the pavement at the center of said finished roadways. The surface of the said pavement thence shall slope gradually to meet the gutters hereinbefore specified.

Upon the roadbeds thus prepared between said points and between said gutters shall be spread a layer of Portland cement concrete six (6) inches in thickness. Said cement shall be so ground that ninety-two (92) per cent will pass through a standard number one hundred (100) sieve having ten thousand (10,000) meshes per square inch.

Briquettes made from a mortar composed of one (1) part said Portland cement and three (3) parts torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screenings, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, exposed to the air for one (1) day and immersed in water for six (6) days, shall develop an ultimate tensile strength of two hundred (200) pounds per square inch.

One (1) part cement which shall stand the above test and comply with the above requirements, and three (3) parts of torpedo sand, or three (3) parts of limestone screening, free from dirt, dust and other impurities, shall be thoroughly mixed dry and then made into a mortar with the least possible amount of water.

Seven (7) parts of the best quality of slag, limestone, or other stone which shall be equal in quality for concrete purposes, of a size that will pass through a ring of (2) inches internal diameter and be held on a ring of one-half (½) inch internal diameter, all of which slag or stone shall be thoroughly cleaned, free from all foreign substances and drenched with water, shall then be incorporated immediately with the mortar. Each batch of concrete shall be thoroughly mixed and at once spread upon the surface of said roadbeds and thoroughly compacted by ramming until free mortar appears on the surface. The surface of said layer of concrete shall be parallel with and three and one-half (3½) inches below the top of the finished pavement.

Upon the concrete foundation as above specified shall be laid a binder course, composed of asphaltic cement and gravel or clean broken limestone crusher run and of varying sizes which will pass through a ring of one (1) inch internal diameter.

The gravel or stone shall be heated and thoroughly mixed with the asphaltic cement in the proportions of six (6) parts by weight of asphaltic cement and ninety-four (94) parts by weight of gravel or stone. This binder shall be spread on the base above described, and while in a hot and plastic condition shall be rolled until it has a uniform thickness of one and one-half (1½) inches. The upper surface shall be exactly parallel with and two (2) inches below the finished surface of the pavement.

Upon this binder course shall be laid a wearing surface or pavement proper, which shall be composed of asphaltic cement seventeen (17) parts, sand seventy-three parts, and pulverized carbonate of lime or pulverized silica ten (10) parts. The sand and asphaltic cement shall be heated separately to a temperature of three hundred (300) degrees Fahrenheit. The pulverized carbonate of lime or the pulverized silica shall be mixed with the sand and these ingredients then mixed with the asphaltic cement at the above temperature in an apparatus which shall effect a perfect mixture.

The material for pavement when mixed as above shall be spread at a temperature of two hundred and fifty (250) degrees Fahrenheit. It shall be carefully spread by means of hot iron rakes in such manner as to give uniform and regular grade to such a depth, that after having received its ultimate compression it will have a thickness of two (2) inches.

The entire surface of the roadways thus improved shall then be compressed by hand rollers, after which natural hydraulic cement in the proportion of one (1) barrel to each one thousand (1,000) square yards of surface shall be swept over it, and the whole then thoroughly compressed by rolling with a steam roller of ten (10) tons weight, the rolling being continued for five (5) hours for each one thousand (1,000) square yards of surface.

All asphaltum used in the making of the asphaltic cement for both the binder and the wearing surface shall be asphaltum obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad, or asphaltum which shall be equal in quality for paving purposes to that obtained from Pitch Lake in the Island of Trinidad.

Seven (7) new brick catchbasins shall be constructed and trapped and connected with the sewer in West 39th street and located in the roadway of said West 39th street at necessary points, adjacent to the curb lines of said West 39th street.

Sixteen (16) new brick catchbasins shall be constructed and trapped and connected with the sewer in West 38th place and located in the roadway of said West 38th place at necessary points, adjacent to the curb lines of said West 38th place.

Four (4) new brick catchbasins shall be constructed and located in the roadway of South St. Louis avenue at necessary points, adjacent to the curb lines of said South St. Louis avenue; two (2) to be connected with the sewer in West 38th place and two (2) to be connected with the sewer in West 39th street.

Six (6) new brick catchbasins shall be constructed and located in the roadway of South Homan avenue at necessary points, adjacent to the curb lines of said South Homan avenue; two (2) to be connected with the sewer in South Homan avenue and four (4) to be connected with the sewer in West 38th place.

One (1) new brick catchbasin shall be constructed and trapped and connected with the sewer in South Spaulding avenue and located in the roadway of said South Spaulding avenue, adjacent to the curb line of said South Spaulding avenue, at a necessary point.

Each of said catchbasins shall be seven feet two inches deep, measuring from the top of the brickwork, and shall have an internal diameter of four feet at the bottom and to a plane five feet above and parallel therewith. The walls of said catchbasins shall be eight inches thick and shall be built of two courses of sewer brick laid edgewise in perpendicular courses, upon a floor of pine plank two inches in thickness. The top of each of said catchbasins shall decrease to two feet internal diameter, being drawn in by means of nine header courses, the diameter being decreased uniformly for each course.

Each of said catchbasins shall be connected with the sewer with tile pipe of eight inches internal diameter and shall be trapped with a half trap also of tile pipe of eight inches internal diameter. The said trap of each said catchbasins shall be set so that the elevation of the bottom of the inside of the same shall be three feet six inches above the floor of the catchbasin.

Each of said catchbasins shall be provided with a suitable cast-iron cover, each of which covers, inclusive of lid, shall weigh five hundred and forty pounds. Each of said cast-iron covers shall be set so that the top of the same shall coincide with the finished surface of the pavement herein described.

The tile pipe specified above shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed and free from lumps and other imperfections, and three-fourths of an inch thick.

All brick and the joints of the tile pipe above referred to shall be laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one part natural hydraulic cement and two parts clean, sharp sand.

The several sewer manholes and catchbasins located in said roadway shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished surface of said pavement; and the several catchbasins located outside of said roadway shall be raised or lowered as may be necessary to make them conform to the elevations herein described. The several catchbasins located on the line of the curb shall be raised or lowered and adjusted as may be necessary to make them conform to the finished surface of said pavement, or to said elevations according to whether the major part of said catchbasin lies within or without the line of said curb. Catchbasin inlets shall be constructed at necessary points in said gutters. The catchbasins not located in the gutters shall be connected with said inlets by means of tile pipe of eight (8) inches internal diameter laid with the best quality of natural hydraulic cement mortar, composed of one (1) part natural hydraulic cement and two (2) parts clean, sharp sand. Said tile pipe shall be straight, smooth and sound, thoroughly burned, well glazed, free from lumps and other imperfections, and three-fourths of an inch thick.

Said work to be done in a workmanlike manner under the superintendence of the Board of Local Improvements of the said City of Chicago.

SECTION 2. That the recommendation of the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Chicago, providing for said improvement together with the estimate of the cost thereof, including the lawful expenses attending the same, made by the engineer of said Board both hereto attached, be and the same are hereby approved.

SECTION 3. No request being made by any two Aldermen present to defer consideration of said report for final action thereon until the next regular meeting, and the question being put,

The following is the report recommended for publication in the foregoing report:

"Vagrancy at common law is the wandering or going about from place to place by an idle person who has no lawful visible means of support, and who subsists on charity and does not work for a living, although able so to do."—In re Jordon, 50 N. W. 1087.

"With the growth of the State and the congestion in our large cities, where the idle, the vicious and the depraved congregate around many public places, it was essential to the peace of the State and the protection of society that some further extension of this definition should be made."—Re Strittmatter, 58 Texas Cir. 156.

"Vagrancy Statutes are intended to enforce honest and respectable living, and constitute a valid exercise of police power."—Re McCue, 36 Pacific, 110.

The power of the legislature to define vagrancy is beyond a doubt. Section 270, Chapter 38, has extended the common law vagrant to include juggling or other unlawful games or plays, runaways, pilferers, confidence men, common drunkards, night walkers, lascivious persons, common railers and brawlers, persons who habitually mis-spend their time by frequenting houses of ill fame, gaming houses or tippling shops, and "all persons who are known to be thieves, burglars, or pick-pockets,either by their own confession or otherwise or by having been convicted of larceny, burglary, or other crime against the laws of the State, punishable, etc., and having no lawful means of support, are habitually found prowling around any" (enumerating many public places) "shall be deemed to be and they are declared to be vagabonds." The penalty clause provides a sentence in the House of Correction or County Jail of not less than ten days and not exceeding six months, or the imposition of a fine of not less than $20 nor more than $100 and costs of suit.

The first cases in the so-called Vagrancy Branch of the Court were heard January 29, 1918, and practically all the cases tried since that date, with the exception of the cases of women, have been charged under that portion of the Statute commencing "All persons who are known to be thieves, etc.", probably 95% of the cases of men have been charged with the offense of Vagrancy in an information charging that the defendant "was an idle and dissolute person and was habitually neglectful of his employment and calling and did not lawfully provide for himself and neglected all lawful business and did habitually mis-spend his time without giving a good account of himself and is known to be a thief having no lawful means of support and is habitually found prowling in and loitering around thoroughfares and tippling shops, in violation of Section 270, Chapter 38 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Illinois."

With this class of offenders it has not been necessary to disinfect the court room, nor fear the presence of vermin, because most of the individuals have been clean and well dressed; indeed, many times the defendant has been the best and most tastily dressed man in the court room. He wears patent-leather shoes; his diamonds sparkle, and he has been properly barbered and manicured.

In this large array of cases it is apparent that there has been in Chicago a criminal class, properly designated as "thieves", a class without a permanent, fixed residence, who may be found generally in company with other well-known thieves at any hour of the day or night at any one of a thousand places, prowling or loitering, without any visible means of support or honest employment.

The general term "thief" embraces a variety of activities: burglary, hold-up, robbery, larceny, safe blower, confidence men, shop-lifter, pick-pocket, wagon thieves, jack rollers, purse snatchers, and petty pilferers. These all have had their day in Court, charged as vagabonds.

It has been rare instances where the proof of thieving was limited to a single offense or conviction. Ordinarily, the record shows anywhere from three or four offenses to fifteen or twenty, and the record further shows the individual's activities are not limited to any one city. To me it is a compliment to the intelligence of the detective sergeant or police officer of Chicago, or any city, that they are able intuitively to gather from the crowd the pickpocket or thief, verifying later by the Bertillion system that they made no mistake.

Generally at least two of the fraternity are arrested together, and frequently four, five, and six, and in one instance ten were arrested together. I append briefly the record of the ten:

The two others had no information filed against them. They both had regular employment; one had been convicted for horse stealing and burglary, and was employed as a teamster, and the other learned his trade as a sole cutter in Joliet in serving a sentence for burglary, and was working for a large shoe manufacturer in Chicago.

An interesting group in February disclosed that A had served a term in the House of Correction for larceny and a term in Joliet for burglary. B had served two terms in the House of Correction for larceny. C had served a sentence in Minnesota for vagrancy, and two terms in the House of Correction for larceny. D had served a term in Wisconsin for vagrancy, also a sentence for disorderly conduct, also a sentence in Stillwater Penitentiary for picking pockets, and a term in House of Correction for disorderly conduct, and E, House of Correction for con game, and 5 years in Federal prison, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans., for post-office robbing. Not one of these men had any employment or means of support.

On the vagrancy charges A was sentenced to 6 months in House of Correction; B, 6 months; C, 4 months; D, 6 months, and E 30 days. A sixth individual, with no criminal record, was sentenced to 6 months, and an individual escaped at time of arrest.

One individual charged with vagrancy has served prison sentences for picking pockets in penitentiaries at Waupun, Wis., Eldora, Iowa, Jackson, Mich., Sing Sing, Clinton County and Erie, N. Y. penitentiaries, and in various jails, including the Chicago House of Correction. He had no honorable means of support. He was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction.

Aside from the criminal class there was presented to the Court an example of the family with a criminal tendency. Two brothers of the M family were both before the Court as vagrants, and each was sentenced to 6 months. The record of J. M. showed:

Pontiac, robbery;
8 months County Jail, burglary;
1 year House of Correction, fornication;
6 months House of Correction, burglary;
6 months House of Correction, driving horse away;
6 months House of Correction, burglary;
20 days House of Correction, larceny;
1 year Green Bay, Wisc., Reformatory, burglary.

His brother, F. M.—
Pontiac, larceny;
Pontiac, burglary;
$50 and costs, disorderly conduct;
Returned to Pontiac;
Reparoled;
Returned to Pontiac;
Reparoled on account of death of mother;
Returned, violation parole;
8 months House of Correction, burglary;
Joliet, burglary.

Another brother has an equally stormy career, and served a sentence in Joliet for burglary. Another brother was never convicted of any offense. The father killed this brother over a quarrel when the boy brought to the home a woman of ill repute. The father was acquitted on the ground of self defense in the Criminal Court of Cook County.

The several instances of criminal records just cited indicate a fair average of several hundred of such cases before the Court since January 29, 1918.

Only one woman was charged as a well-known thief. N. K. had many aliases, as is usually the case. She was a pickpocket and the wife of a well-known pickpocket. They were brought in about six weeks apart. Both are now in the House of Correction. N. K. has served 2 years in Joliet, 6 months Erie County Penitentiary, N. Y., 6 months Female Reformatory, Toronto, 4 years Jefferson City, Mo., Penitentiary, 3 years Stillwater, Minn., Penitentiary; also 90 days House of Correction, Milwaukee, vagrancy; 1 year House of Correction, Chicago, larceny, besides innumerable arrests in other cities throughout the country. She frankly informed the Court that at one time she had a trained corps of "operators" (pickpockets) under her charge.

RESULTS.

After the arrest, offenders were very willing to promise to get work. They were tried, however, on the record at time of arrest, and not on promises. The Vagrancy Court anticipated the Government order to work or fight. Men were not released on promises to work; that would be too simple a defense. The Court refused to bring back offenders from the House of Correction on the promise of employment. Some few were brought back when actually called in the selective draft. Twenty-five or thirty went into the military service and we had positive information that the individual was actually in the service before the order of discharge was entered. Two enlisted in the navy.

In all the cases tried we found only one case on parole from an Illinois penal institution. A boy paroled from Pontiac, charged with vagrancy, was sent back to Pontiac for violating parole by parole officer Reed after the Court had indicated that he would send the boy to the House of Correction. Parole officers inform me that after the establishment of this branch every paroled man and boy "was on his good behavior, refused to associate with thieves, stayed away from pool rooms and saloons, and would not come into the loop for a thousand dollars."

There has been no instance of any one charged with vagrancy that was on probation by judges of this court. At least three cases came to the attention of the Court on probation from the Criminal Court. It was not the fact that they were on probation that attracted attention, but the fact that they had long criminal records and their records clearly placed them beyond the pale of the adult probation law.

On February 13, 1917, J. O. was placed on probation for one year in the Criminal Court. Previously he had served fifteen days, County Jail, larceny, seven days County Jail, receiving stolen property, six months County Jail, enticing females, and six months House of Correction, larceny.

J. D. was placed on probation March 8, 1917, for one year in the Criminal Court. He had been charged in the Criminal Court previously with burglary and assault to rob, and in Indiana has served a sentence of six months in the State Farm on the charge of robbery and assault to kill.

W. P. was placed on probation October 5, 1917, for one year in the Criminal Court of Cook County. A charge of burglary had been dismissed and he had served ninety days for malicious mischief in the House of Correction; fined $25 and costs for disorderly conduct; one year in Pontiac and fined $100 and costs; discharged on two other occasions on charges of larceny; had been in John Worthy School. These three cases were arrested within the probation period. Not one made a pretense of having work.

The Court has been very careful on the matter of bonds for this class of offenders. There has been a total of twelve bond forfeitures, two of which were women.

Stay bonds have been filed in these cases and supersedeas issued. That means three appeals perfected to the Appellate Court, out of the entire number of cases disposed of.

There were four changes of venue granted. There has not been to exceed twenty cases where the offender was under twenty-one years of age. Seventeen cases were transferred to the Boys' Court. In the Boys' Court there was one bond forfeiture. Eleven were discharged; three were sentenced to three months in the House of Correction, and one, two months.

When the vagrancy branch was opened Chicago was over-run with crime. The Aldermanic Crime Committee had become active; business interests and citizens generally demanded some action on the part of the constituted authorities.

From the Chicago police records, or, as it is generally termed, from the "squeal books" of the police department of the entire city figures have been gleaned that are most convincing as to results. These records show the crimes committed and brought to the attention of the police department. Under the general heading of burglary, robbery, and larceny, the following results are learned:

	Burglary	Robbery	Larceny	Total
October 1917	349	146	654	1149
November 1917	422	245	621	1288
December 1917	357	249	537	1143
January 1918	258	280	436	974
February 1918	273	143	334	750
March 1918	327	101	424	852
April 1918	293	90	393	776
May 1918	266	61	474	801

So that it may appear that approaching Summer has not caused the diminution of crime, there is here presented the police record for the same offences for the month of January to May, inclusive, 1917:

	Burglary	Robbery	Larceny	Total
January 1917	624	248	674	1540
February 1917	551	227	555	1333
March 1917	671	246	749	1666
April 1917	638	197	690	1525
May 1917	543	146	819	1508

It will be remembered that the first cases tried in the vagrancy court were heard on January 29th, and after that there has been a steady reduction of crime, whereas a year previous about the same number of offences occurred in May that were recorded in January.

The police records show that safe blowing and pocket picking have almost been eliminated. The enforcement of the vagrancy law has been the most effective drive ever made in Chicago against pickpockets. The fraternity is either in the House of Correction, or has left the city. More than twenty-five well-known pickpockets are now serving sentences of six months in the House of Correction.

The records in the clerk's office of the Municipal Court show that in the year 1917 there were 94 cases of vagrancy before the Court, disposed of as follows: discharged 75; dismissed, want of prosecution 9; committed to the House of Correction 5; fined 4; nolle pross 1. Since January 29, 1918 there has been before this branch and disposed of 368 cases, divided as follows: 302 men and 66 women.

The records show the following disposition as to the male vagrants, 190 found guilty, and 112 discharged. The penalties in the 190 cases were as follows:

6 months House of Correction	34
5 " " " "	2
4 " " " "	24
3 " " " "	34
2 " " " "	27
1 " " " "	59

Fined 10, aggregating total fines, exclusive of costs $480.00

The record of women offenders shows 37 found guilty and 29 discharged. The penalties in the cases were as follows:

6 months House of Correction	3
4 " " " "	2
3 " " " "	13
2 " " " "	10
1 " " " "	8

Fined 1, $50 and costs.

Activity on the part of the Police Department on April 4th, 1918 brought into the Court a number of women offenders. The greatest number of women brought in were charged as "idle and dissolute, common night walkers and lascivious in speech and behavior"; in addition to this, the medical test of these women showed that the majority of them were diseased. All the women convicted were old offenders, and had been in the morals court many times. As an example, a partial record of one case indicates somewhat the general type of offender. I will give this defendant the name "D. F.":

Date	Charge	Disposition
12-3-15	57 A—1; discharged, January
2-23-16	Soliciting; discharged
2-14-16	"	"
5-8-16	"	$15.00 and costs
7-21-16	"	dismissed, want of prosecution
10-16-16	57 A—1; 30 days House of Correction
1-9-17	57 A—1; $5.00 and costs
3-21-17	Inmate; discharged
5-18-17	Soliciting; $1.00 and costs
5-21-17	Disorderly conduct; $25.00 and costs
6-22-17	Released from House of Correction
7-3-17	Disorderly conduct; discharged
1-29-18	Disorderly conduct; $25.00 and costs
4-17-18	In vagrancy court 4 months, House of Correction.

I am satisfied that the charge of vagrancy against this class of offenders is the most effective charge that can be drawn. Indeed, good lawyers defending women so charged have told me that it is the most effective action, so far as results are concerned, that they have known.

I believe if the commanding officers in the several sections of the city kept a card-index system of the women in their territory, plying their trade upon the streets, as the Detective Bureau keeps a card system as to the activities of well-known thieves, that in three to six months any commanding officer could clean his territory of this class of offenders. Eventually, the finger-print method of identification for this class should be legalized.

The work of the Court has been most satisfactory. It has perhaps taken half of the court hours in the trial of cases, the other half day being devoted to the trial of civil cases, other state and city cases being transferred to this branch, and larceny (picking pockets) and gun (2807) cases. These latter two classes of case grew out of the vagrancy work.

Mr. Joseph P. Ryan, assistant State's Attorney, assigned to this branch, is entitled to credit for the fair and impartial manner in which he has performed his duties. At the same time he has not permitted the public's interests to be secondary to the demands of that class of individual who have appealed to him in the interest of the professional prostitute and thief. That appeal has gone unheeded in this branch.

There has been no delay in the trial of these cases. Practically all have been disposed of within three or four days after the arrest. This is a new procedure for this class of offenders in Chicago.

Not only in the trial and disposition of cases has the City has been made safer, but the work of the Court and its publicity to the criminal class, have caused that class to leave Chicago, and the undesirable element outside of Chicago to stay away from Chicago. Pickpockets, confidence men, and thieves, in general, discuss their lines of endeavor as commercial travelers discuss theirs, and like the commercial travelers they consider the towns and cities to patronize, and the good towns and cities to stay away from. In determining the towns to stay away from the determining factor is the attitude the authorities show in the enforcement of laws and ordinances.

Oscar Heineman Co. and Burton-Dixie Corporation: Reconsideration of Ordinances Authorizing Vaults in Alleys.

The Mayor submitted the following communication:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, July 8, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith communications from the Comptroller, recommended by the real estate agent, in reference to granting authority to Oscar Heineman Company to construct and maintain a vault in the alley adjoining the premises known as 1937-45 North Fairfield avenue and also granting authority to the Burton-Dixie Corporation to reconstruct, maintain and use a vault in the north-and-south alley west of South Racine avenue and to construct, maintain and use a conduit in the north-and-south alley east of South Racine avenue across West 21st street, which were passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body. As these communications point out, the beneficiaries of these ordinances are firms that have filed objection to the general taxes.

Some time ago an order was passed by your Honorable Body directing that no privileges be extended by the city to any of the 1917 tax objectors.

If it is not the policy of the City Council to grant favors of this character to persons who oppose the collection of revenue by the City, then the vote by which these ordinances were passed should be reconsidered.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

The following communications were submitted with the foregoing communication:

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) EUGENE R. PIKE,

Board of Directors, Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium: Appointments of Members, and Report of Activities.

The Mayor submitted the following communication:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, July 8, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I beg to present herewith appointments of members of the Board of Directors of the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium, together with a report of the activities in that institution during the last two years.

The capacity of the sanitarium in 1915 was 560 beds. This has been increased until at the present time the capacity is 950 beds—an increase which has been brought about at a minimum expense by reconstructing the first floors of the infirmary building and by the conversion of a number of porches into sleeping quarters.

The expense of adding this large number of beds, the building of a new boiler room, a new bakery, laundry, animal house, sun porches, carpenter shop, chicken house and increasing barn facilities was $243,216.85.

Original cost of buildings on sanitarium grounds	$1,698,750.00
Cost per bed with capacity of 560 beds...	3,035.00
Additional expense of.....	243,216.85
Cost per bed with capacity of 950 beds...	2,139.00

The cost per capita per week at the Sanitarium has been gradually reduced from $11.55 in 1915 to $9.54 which was the per capita cost for the month just past.

In the field work, the part time dispensaries have been changed to full time dispensary service, with a full time civil service staff. The dispensaries are now open 416 hours each week, as compared with 67 hours per week under the old, part time system. Evening clinics have been established, and at the present time we are taking care of approximately 25,000 home patients in these dispensaries, providing them with medicines and medical and nursing care. Of these, 9,000 are children, definitely diagnosed as tuberculosis. The cost per capita per year has been reduced from $6.80 in the year 1915 to $2.42 for the years 1916-1917.

The field quarantine control of tuberculosis has been established under the law, whereby a careless, contagious case of consumption is placed in the Sanitarium and not permitted to scatter infection. Since the first of last September over 800 of these dangerous cases have been hospitalized and have been taken from their homes where they were infecting their own children and others.

During the last two years a survey of eight square miles of Chicago has been completed, giving us the facts in regard to tuberculosis in this district. From this survey it was estimated that there are 60,000 cases of tuberculosis in Chicago.

During this same period fifty doctors and fifty nurses have been employed in the public schools on the Sanitarium staff, examining the children there and ascertaining which of them are infected. As many as possible of these are placed in the Elizabeth McCormick open air schools.

The last legislature placed the Sanitarium under civil service, and at the present time nearly all the employes of the institution are under civil service.

A splendid system of co-operation has been worked out between this institution and the Red Cross whereby the returned tuberculosis soldier and his family are given immediate attention.

It is said by many that the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium is one of the best managed institutions in the country. This reputation and the above results have been achieved largely through the efforts of Dr. John Dill Robertson and Mr. F. Bowden DeForest.

In conformity with the law I hereby appoint the following as members of the Board of Directors of the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium:

Dr. Wm. M. Harsha, 30 North Michigan avenue, for the term expiring July 1, 1919, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Dr. C. P. Caldwell.

F. Bowden DeForest, whose term has expired, for the term ending July 1, 1920.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, whose term has expired, for the term ending July 1, 1921,

And respectfully request the concurrence of your Honorable Body.

Yours respectfully,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF GAS AND ELECTRICITY.

Street Lighting Equipment of Commonwealth Edison Co.: in re Purchase by the City.

The Clerk presented the following communication submitted by the Commissioner of Gas and Electricity, which was, together with the communication submitted therewith, referred to the Committee on Finance:

DEPARTMENT OF GAS AND ELECTRICITY,
CHICAGO, July 2, 1918.

Purchase of Commonwealth Edison Company's Street Lighting Equipment.

To the Honorable, the Mayor, and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I submit to your honorable body herewith proposal of the Commonwealth Edison Company submitted in their letter of June 26, a copy of which is hereto attached, stating that they will sell to the City of Chicago fourteen (14) street lighting circuits and equipment (with the exception of flaming arc lamps), for the sum of $100,000.00, payable in cash before any of these circuits are turned over to the City.

I have investigated their proposal, and would recommend that this equipment be purchased immediately, and ask that Council authority be granted to me to purchase the same from the Municipal Street Lighting Bond Fund already appropriated for the year 1918. I give you herewith certain particulars pertaining to this proposal:

At the present time the City rents approximately 734 flame arc lamps and 254 type "C" Mazda lamps for street lighting, which are connected to 14 circuits owned by the Commonwealth Edison Company, consisting of 3 circuits out of their 56th street sub-station, 5 circuits out of their Grand Crossing sub-station and 6 from their South Chicago sub-station. The rental paid for these lamps is very much in excess of the cost of municipal operation, and the most advantageous way of securing a saving in the most rapid manner is to purchase such portion of the circuit equipment as can be used and reconnect the same to cables operating from our own sub-stations.

With this end in view, we requested the Commonwealth Edison Company to submit a price for such portion of their circuits as could be utilized by the City in reconnecting such circuits to the City sub-stations. On January 2 they submitted a price of $160,053.88 cash for this equipment, a copy of which offer is hereto attached. This price seemed excessive, and after several conferences in my office with the representatives of the Commonwealth Edison Company, there was submitted on April 17 a price of $104,656.00 cash for this equipment, which differed from the previous offer in the respect that the flame arc lamps were not to be included. This was most satisfactory to the City, because we considered the flame arc lamp to be inefficient and excessive in cost of operation. The City had approximately 10,000 flame arc lamps on its system which have practically all been displaced. Copy of their offer of April 17 is also hereto attached.

I still believed that this price could be reduced, and through my efforts to secure a reduction, I obtained their offer of June 26 amounting to $100,000.00. The inventory of the plant to be purchased has been agreed upon between the engineers of the Commonwealth Edison Company and the engineers of this department, and a copy of the inventory is enclosed. I have made an approximate estimate of the cost to replace this equipment at this time, and I believe a conservative estimate is $142,000.00.

The condition of our funds for rented street lighting demands that this equipment be purchased at the earliest possible date, and operated out of our municipal sub-stations.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WILLIAM G. KEITH,
Commissioner.

The Clerk presented the following communication, submitted by the Commissioner of Public Works:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
BUREAU OF COMPENSATION,
CHICAGO, July 8, 1918.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I transmit herewith for consideration by your Honorable Body an ordinance repealing an ordinance granting authority to George Y. Hill to construct and maintain a canopy over the sidewalk adjoining premises at 6240 Cottage Grove avenue.

Mr. Hill was merely a tenant at that location and abandoned the premises in 1914. The Maryland Casualty Company, surety on Mr. Hill's bond, has been endeavoring for the past two years to either locate Mr. Hill, or secure an agreement from the owner of the premises for the removal of the canopy and finally succeeded in removing the canopy early in 1918.

The unpaid compensation amounts to approximately $87.50. The surety company has offered $50.00 in settlement of the same, the acceptance of which amount has been recommended by the Corporation Counsel and concurred in by the Bureau of Compensation.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) FRANK I. BENNETT,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITY OFFICERS.

Veto.

City Departments: Investigation by the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency.

The Mayor submitted the following veto message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, July 17, 1918.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed by your Honorable Body at your meeting held on July 8, 1918, and appearing at page 634 of the Council Proceedings of that date, which order purports to invite the Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency to make an investigation at their own expense of the activities of the various departments in the City Hall and report to your Honorable Body their findings, and further purporting to direct the various department heads to afford said Chicago Bureau of Efficiency all assistance in this investigation.

This Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency has been trying for many years to get in a position where under the guise of making an investigation of activities in the City Hall it can manufacture and give out to the public representations which will serve the selfish and political purposes of the individuals who are concealed under its high sounding name.

During Mayor Harrison's administration this bureau made an attempt to pry itself into the City Hall just as it is making now. On May 18, 1914 (Council Proceedings of that date, pages 258 and 259), Mayor Harrison gave some reasons why this bureau should not be turned loose in the City Hall to serve the selfish and political purposes above mentioned. I refer to and adopt the statements made by Mayor Harrison the same as if they were repeated in full in this message.

On February 4, 1918 (Council Proceedings of that date, page 1978), I sent to your Honorable Body a message vetoing an order like the present one, which was passed by your Honorable Body on January 28, 1918, and I now refer to and adopt the reasons stated in that message in support of my present message the same as if such reasons were herein set forth at length.

On June 17, 1918 (Council Proceeding of that date, page 404), I sent to your Honorable Body a message vetoing an order, similar to the present one, passed by you on June 10, 1918, and I refer to and adopt the reasons set forth in that message in support of this message the same as if they were herein set forth in full.

I also direct your attention to the communications at that time submitted with my message from the Chicago Federation of Labor and Chicago Building Trades Council (Council Proceedings 404-405), showing why each of said bodies refused to participate with said Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency in its proposed investigation.

I also direct attention to the communication from the Clearing House Committee under date of July 6, 1918 (Council Proceedings of July 8, page 595), in which, referring to an invitation to them to make an investigation of the activities of the City of Chicago, they said, among other things: "We have no desire to do so" i. e. to make such investigation.

It has also been stated that Governor Lowden desires that this Bureau of Public Efficiency be allowed to make the proposed investigation; but I have reason to believe that such statement is without foundation.

In addition to the reasons already referred to, it is my opinion that it is absolutely wrong and against the public interest to allow an investigation to be made, the real object of which is obviously to supply campaign material for political purposes. Such an investigation cannot be fair; it cannot be just or honest. It has no interest to discover or point out anything that is good; but merely to find something that can be distorted into an appearance of wrong and then give that out for publication for political purposes under such conditions that the parties charged with wrong will have no chance to answer the charges against them.

Not long ago there was a similar investigation about paving. A pretentious pamphlet was prepared which a professor of the Illinois University was induced to sign, according to which the paving inspectors were crooked and the people were being defrauded. This pamphlet was given wide publicity; and the intended damage to the public officials was done. But later, a further investigation was made where every one had a chance to be heard; and then it was demonstrated that the statements made in the pamphlet were based on false information; that the truth was suppressed; and such statements were wholly without foundation. But, as stated, the pamphlet had been circulated and had done the dirty, political damage it was intended to do; and the truth brought out in the subsequent investigation came too late, practically, to remedy the wrong that had been done.

It must be borne in mind that, so far as known, if this proposed investigating body were called "The Chicago Bureau of Public Inefficiency" it would be as accurately described as by the name under which it masquerades: "The Chicago Bureau of Public Efficiency."

What is this body Is it a corporation? Does any one know? Is it a voluntary association? If so, who are the associates? Does any one know? No recognized person, natural or corporate, is invited to make this investigation; just a high sounding name. Under this name a horde of unknown, irresponsible persons are, according to this order, to be turned loose in the City Hall, like a bull in a china shop, without limitations, without restrictions, without safeguards. No provision is made as to whether these persons will be saints or sinners, honest or crooked, intelligent or unintelligent, ignorant or otherwise with respect to municipal affairs, competent or incompetent, efficient or inefficient; nothing is said as to what will be the purpose and extent of their investigation; no security is asked that the investigation shall be made in good faith; no precaution is taken to protect the interests of the City; in short, nothing is done that an ordinarily prudent man would do if he were providing for an examination of his affairs with a view to his own good.

The very absence of all ordinary and reasonable precautions points plainly to the fact that the proposed investigation is not to be made in good faith in the interest of the City.

Why not come out in the open and pass an order that the Harrison faction of the Democratic party, or the Sullivan faction of that party, or the Brundage faction of the Republican party, or the Deneen faction of that party, or some other recognized organization, be invited to make this investigation. Then we would have some idea as to the responsible parties and what they were seeking to accomplish, which is more than can be said of this shadowy thing which is not of earth, nor yet of air, but only a cloud behind which some unknown persons are seeking to operate in order to promote selfish and political purposes of their own.

While as above indicated the persons operating behind this name are unknown, yet it is commonly reported and I believe that Julius Rosenwald is one of its guiding spirits. He is the same Julius Rosenwald who on December 31, 1914, was indicted by the grand jury of Cook County, and of whom the grand jurors in their indictment used the following language, viz:

"And the grand jurors aforesaid upon their oaths aforesaid do further present that the said Julius Rosenwald on the first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen in the County of Cook and State of Illinois and at all other days and times in the said County and State aforesaid did unlawfully, wilfully and wrongfully refuse, neglect and fail so to list with the Board of Assessors of Cook County said personal property or any portion thereof for taxation as aforesaid, the same not being exempted by law from taxation."

It seems to me that the Finance Committee, if anxious to serve the people of Chicago, would better cause an investigation of Mr. Rosenwald and other mulimillionaire tax dodgers like him with a view to forcing them to pay somewhere near their just share of taxation. If this were done I firmly believe that the City would have abundant means to pay its employes an adequate living wage; to procure all the policemen and firemen necessary for the protection of life and property; and easily to carry on all the various municipal activities, including the public schools and the payment to the teachers of just and fair compensation.

In conclusion, I desire further to state that I am advised that this order, even if approved by me, would be illegal and void.

For these reasons I return the order, without my approval, and recommend that it be placed on file.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
BUREAU OF COMPENSATION,
CHICAGO, July 17, 1918.

Hon. Wm. Hale Thompson, Mayor, City of Chicago:

DEAR SIR—Your attention is respectfully called to an order passed by the City Council at the last regular meeting, July 8, 1918, page 619 Council Proceedings, on motion of Ald. Coughlin of the First Ward, directing the Commissioner of Public Works to issue a permit to Chase and Sanborn to repair and maintain a flume as now constructed on the side of building known as 68-78 East Lake street, which is over a public alley.

The Council has heretofore granted similar privileges to several other parties, and in each instance has required the same to be in ordinance form, providing for the filing of a $10,000.00 bond to protect the City and the payment of an annual compensation. The order referred to contains none of these provisions and provides for no termination or revocation. I would therefore recommend that the same be vetoed and referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys for consideration.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) FRANK I. BENNETT,
Commissioner of Public Works.

(Signed) H. V. MCGURREN,
Superintendent of Compensation.

Hon. James T. Igoe, City Clerk, Chicago:

DEAR SIR—Will you kindly convey to His Honor, Wm. We greatly appreciate the friendly co-operation of the various departments of the City Government in getting our market started, and from all indications it will be a great success and a permanent value to the people of the Northwest Side.

Electrical Work of the City: Protest against Method of Administration.

The Clerk presented the following communication, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the Members of the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—The undersigned committee and representatives of Electrical Workers in the classified service of the City of Chicago desire to present herewith to your Honor and your Honorable Body this communication concerning the present administration of the municipal electrical affairs, to the end that certain manifest evils existing therein be remedied and obviated by proper municipal regulations.

While the municipal code commands that all electrical matters in which the City is interested shall be under the management and control of the Department of Gas and Electricity, the fact is that this provision of the City's laws is held at naught and flagrantly violated each day in the administration of the City's electrical system. It requires no skilled electrician or technical engineer to point out the anomalous and absurd conditions that are to be found on all hands in the working out of the activities and purposes of the City's administration of matters of an electrical nature. The fact is that a very substantial and important part of the City's electrical work is done and controlled by departments other than that of Gas and Electricity, which have neither the experience nor the skill, nor the equipment necessary to perform adequately and scientifically this work of an electrical character. Although the City has now and has always had a thoroughly competent and modern Department of Gas and Electricity, whose business is now and has always been in charge of able and experienced engineers and mechanics, and which is at present excellently equipped to handle and administer all of the electrical affairs of the City, perhaps more so now than ever, still the ridiculous truth is that the Department of Public Works, the Department of Engineering, the Health Department, and other municipal agencies are taking it upon themselves to do electrical work and installation, maintenance and repair, which by every token of sound judgment and sane business belongs to and should be done by the Department of Gas and Electricity exclusively. It would serve no useful purpose in this argument for a general economical and efficient administration of the City's electrical matters to detail and specify the numerous and serious instances in which other departments of the City's government encroach upon the proper field of work of the Department of Gas and Electricity. The fact is that this condition exists and is keenly realized by the heads of the departments themselves. What causes this incongruous situation in the administration of the City's business should not now concern us; never mind how this condition came about, let us go after the fact that it is here. The evil consequences of this state of things are too obvious to require mention. The present practice of allowing electrical installations, repairs, and maintenance to be done by employees other than experienced and skilled electricians, spells waste, inefficient workmanship and danger to life and property; worse than all it means that competent and intelligent electrical construction, maintenance and repair is neglected and not being done to a very large extent because the only city employees who can do the work are not designated to do it. It is gravely unjust and unfair to the City employees themselves. The prospect of a common laborer doing electrical work of a pumping engineer, supervising, maintaining and regulating involved electrical equipment, and of a doctor engaging in like activities of an electrical nature, is not only a present fact, but is a lamentable commentary on our methods of municipal government.

The peculiar thing about the whole affair is that these causes of complaint are found to exist in no other well-ordered metropolitan city government in the United States, outside of Chicago; and in the City of Chicago itself, we find this over-reaching and encroaching affects only the Department of Gas and Electricity. The functions of each department are definite and accurately followed. They interlace at no point, except in connection with the Department of Gas and Electricity.

All well-informed and fair-minded men join in condemning this state of municipal administration. All experts in municipal government, all business men, and all mechanics are now and have always been agreed that this absurdity in our departmental methods should no longer be tolerated. And it is a curious fact that this evil has been allowed to exist uncorrected as long as it has.

As the present conditions have caused inefficiency, extravagance, danger and neglect of work necessary to be done, so too with its disappearance we can expect and will have the reverse of these things, and the City will have established and become committed to a well ordered and definite arrangement of its departmental service, and there will obtain among the Department of Gas and Electricity and other City departments, both among officials and employees alike, those cordial and satisfactory relations which mean efficient, economical, and intelligent work.

This whole matter has been heretofore, on various occasions taken up with the City officials, Council, and Council Committees with no satisfactory or substantial result, without a full and fair investigation and with an apparent attitude of delay, postponement, and inaction, particularly before the Finance Committee, which has been deluded into the belief that a jurisdictional question is involved, and has frankly admitted its inability and lack of information to decide the present subject matter.

In justice to our cause and the employees whom we represent, from whom we have positive instructions as to our future course of action, we most earnestly request and insist that this policy of inaction and indecision should and must, we respectfully submit, cease at once. We should very greatly regret the necessity which would compel us to a breach of the relations of employment and continued service, and the drastic action which we would be driven to take in the interests of those concerned. Action on this matter cannot come too soon, both in the interests of the City and the employees involved.

While we do not demand nor expect that this whole controversy shall be settled forthwith, still we believe we are, right now, entitled to some initiative or assurance on the part of the City and the City Council, that the matter shall be investigated and determined at the earliest possible date. Accordingly therefore, in order to avoid any present breach or controversy resulting in a discontinuance of municipal service by the men concerned at this time, we respectfully request that some measures of improving the conditions complained of, be taken at once, and our present purpose will be entirely satisfied if the matter is now referred to a committee, or such joint committees of the City Council, as may fully and intelligently investigate and report on this matter at the next meeting of your Honorable Body, such committee or committees to sit in conference with department heads involved and determine upon such plans and deliberations at this time as will eventually effect the purpose of this communication.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Water be and he is hereby authorized to accept the net amount of water frontage bills against 83 premises in the 6th, 7th and 8th Wards, the accounts of which are specified below, amounting to $501.68, and to decrease the discounts amounting to $166.82 for the reason that these accounts were paid to an agency of the American Express Company on or before June 15, 1918, which is the final date for the allowance of discounts on water frontage bills of the 6th, 7th and 8th Wards for the period May to November, for the reason that the vouchers of said water frontage bills and check for $501.68 were tendered the Bureau of Water only three hours late, such delay occurring because of an error of a new employe replacing an experienced employe just gone to war, and for the further reason that the financial department of the American Express Company has been badly handicapped due to a number of the experienced employes having gone to war and the confusion resulting from the merging of the express companies by the Government:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE,
CHICAGO, May 3, 1918.

Hon. John A. Richert, Chairman, and the Members of the Committee on Finance of the City Council, City Hall, Chicago, Illinois:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with the terms of the resolution recently passed by your Honorable Body, I have the honor to submit a report on the activities of the Bureau of Employment for the five months beginning January 1st and ending May 31st, 1918.

ACTIVITIES OF THE BUREAU OF EMPLOYMENT.

As provided for in the 1918 budget the Bureau of Employment has three separate and distinct lines of effort, namely:

The Employment Bureau, whose function is the securing of employment for the destitute, the handicapped, elderly men and women of various types, persons discharged from local penal and reformatory institutions, and needy persons referred by various charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons referred to the Bureau for employment by public officials.

The Municipal Lodging House and Municipal Wood Yard, which is operated for the six months' period provided for in the annual budget.

The Municipal Gardens, which include the operation of one or more community gardens, and the general conduct or direction of numerous garden tracts throughout the City, and also co-operation and assistance in the cultivation of large numbers of vacant lots and back yard gardens in all parts of the City.

Under the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, providing for the re-opening of the Employment Bureau, August 1, 1917, the scope of the employment function of the Bureau was greatly limited. Previous to its closing in April, 1917, the Employment Bureau had secured positions for all classes of applicants without regard to their economical status, nor their personal or physical qualifications. Under the ruling referred to the Employment Bureau is now permitted to secure employment only for the needy, the handicapped, juvenile and adult persons discharged from city reformatory and penal institutions, which includes persons discharged from the Bridewell and juveniles referred to the Bureau by the Boys' Court and Juvenile Court, and also unemployed citizens referred to the Bureau by public officials as in need of employment.

It will thus be apparent that the work of the Bureau under this plan of operation is intensive rather than extensive. Each and every applicant presents a problem in employment which must be met and solved if the person is to be made independent and self-sustaining. Considerable time and effort are required in disposing of each case, and the volume of work of the Employment Bureau as measured by registrations and placements is thus greatly curtailed.

The following figures show the number of persons registered, referred and placed by the Male and Female Divisions separately, and the total number of registrations and placements of both divisions for the period mentioned:

	Applicants for Work	Referred to Positions	Placed
Male Divisions	1135	1088	724
Female Division	978	842	708
Total	2113	1930	1432

The average number of telephone calls per day is 35, and the average total requests for help 67. About 40% of these requests are for help of the manual labor type, 25% for casual and handy occupations and private day jobs, 20% for juvenile workers, and the remainder for various office positions of a notably high grade.

Owing to the limited space available for the use of the Employment Bureau and the small force engaged in this work, there being but three employes in addition to the superintendent, it has been impossible to furnish the service which the employers of Chicago have daily called upon the Bureau to furnish.

SPECIALIZED FIELD OF OPERATION.

As now being conducted the Employment Bureau covers a field and fulfills a function not provided for nor handled by any other employment bureau in this city. There is no other employment agency, either public or private, which aims adequately to provide relief in the way of employment for the large number of special cases referred to this Bureau by interested citizens, officials and organizations of recognized standing in the community.

There has been a fine spirit of co-operation existing between this Employment Bureau and the Illinois Free Employment Bureau, the Federal Employment Bureau and the Employers' Association Bureau. Many special cases, each involving some peculiar difficulty, have been referred to this Bureau each month by the employment bureaus above mentioned, and also by the State Council of Defense and the Daily News Farm Bureau, now discontinued. The records of this Bureau show that most of the applicants have been placed in satisfactory positions, and this result alone demonstrates the need of some agency to care for the needs of this large and growing class of applicants in this great industrial city.

WORK IN CONNECTION WITH THE BRIDEWELL.

Since November, 1917, an assistant superintendent of the Bureau of Employment has been stationed at the Bridewell to interview female persons about to be discharged, making a study of each individual case and making recommendations for the special disposition of each case under consideration. The most important need of all such cases has been that of employment. It is usually difficult for graduates of this institution themselves to secure employment, but the results achieved in securing work for these unfortunates has been gratifying indeed.

Prostitutes, shop-lifters and habitual drinkers, some of whom have served many commitments, have been placed in self-sustaining positions in factories, hotels and institution work; many as cashiers, domestics, etc. A close touch is kept with all such cases in an endeavor to reform such persons and make their employment permanent, and with but few exceptions women so placed in positions are rendering satisfactory services.

It might also be mentioned that many girls have been referred to this Bureau for employment by Miss Kirke of the Morals Court, and a number of them have been placed at the Stock Yards and through the social service departments of several other of the large corporations, which have co-operated heartily with this work of the Employment Bureau.

There is a large field for employment work among the male population of the Bridewell, but owing to the lack of help it has not been possible as yet to assign a man from this Department to work among the men of the Bridewell. Since employment is the most important requisite of the discharged prisoner, the importance of taking up this work in the men's department of the Bridewell is apparent and it should be begun as early as possible.

CO-OPERATION WITH THE COURTS AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

There is ample opportunity for the extension of employment work in co-operation with the various branches of the municipal and juvenile courts. It is recommended that this phase of the work of the Employment Bureau be broadened and so organized that this Bureau will be able to serve effectively as a clearing house for the speedy placement of all unemployed persons, both male and female, referred to it by the various courts and local reform and penal institutions.

When it is recalled that in the City of Chicago there are about 1,100,000 persons whose capital is their labor, which they sell to others, it will easily be seen that in this vast industrial army, with its immense annual labor turn-over and with the large number of industrial handicaps and misfits who are unable themselves to secure employment, there is urgent and constant need for some agency which will strive to place these people in self-sustaining employment whenever they may be forced to seek another market for their labor.

WOOD YARD AND LODGING HOUSE.

The Wood Yard and Lodging House were opened in November, 1917, and continued in operation until April, 1918. Under the policy whereby each applicant for lodging house accommodations is required to show his good faith by performing a certain amount of work in the Wood Yard, the number of applicants has been greatly lessened. During the past year the average per day was about 80, and although this is a small number when compared with the thousands who in former years patronized the Municipal Lodging House, it still indicates the need of some such agency as a municipal lodging house to extend emergency relief to the many who because of Chicago's accessibility by numerous railroads daily arrive in this city and are without immediate means to secure food or shelter.

MUNICIPAL GARDENS.

It will be recalled that the city garden movement, which has now attained such large proportions, was first begun by this Bureau in 1914, during which season 136 acres of community gardens were operated and several thousand home gardens were supervised by it. This season the Bureau has taken an active part in promoting garden activities in Chicago and has cooperated effectively with the Garden Department of the State Council of Defense in this work.

The superintendent of employment, himself practically trained in garden work and thoroughly experienced in agricultural matters, has directed and cooperated in the establishment of several large community gardens. Among these may be mentioned the Fifth Ward Community Garden at 38th street and Central Park avenue, where small farms have been provided for 114 applicants; the Kellogg Park Community Garden of 20 acres; the Y. M. C. A. Community Garden of 60 acres at Kensington and West Pullman; the Community Garden at 49th street and Stony Island avenue; as well as several other garden tracts of considerable size. Directions and advice in soil preparation, planting, and assistance in plowing have been furnished to many hundreds of smaller gardeners and numerous talks and calls have been made for the purpose of forming garden organizations and for stimulating and directing garden projects already under way.

In this City with its large areas of fertile vacant lands there is wide opportunity for the further organization and promotion of garden activities, and it would seem advisable to co-ordinate and unify the garden work in this city under this Department in co-operation with the Committee on Home Defense of the City Council.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) JAMES W. CALLEY,
Superintendent of Employment.

MAY MOVING PERIOD.

On May 1st of each year the leases of a large proportion of the citizens of Chicago expire, with the result that the moving man is busier than at any other time of the year. This year Chicago had 494,983 telephones in service on May 1st, a large proportion of which serve the people who move and consequently require their telephones moved also. In addition to the moves there were a great many who have never had a telephone, but who upon moving sought premises in which a previous tenant had had service and the telephone still remained intact. There were also those whose applications had been filed for some time and to whom the company could now furnish service because in many instances facilities were created due to the release of conductors caused by moving subscribers.

This year the number of people requiring their telephones moved was 40,551, or about 8.2% of the number of telephones in service on May 1st. This is a slight decrease under 1917 when the number of moves was 42,924, or 9% of the total number of telephones in service on May 1st; and is accounted for by the fact that very few new flats were erected in 1918, due to war conditions and the high cost of material. This is the first time that the bureau has noted a decrease in May moves, but the improvement is only apparent, because the same shortage in buildings which cut down the number of moves also resulted in later moves and later notification to the company than usual, so that the congestion of the work immediately before and after May 1st was more serious than ever before. This caused a heavy increase in Item No. 18, which consisted largely of requests to the bureau for special privileges in the way of quick action where the usual notification of the move had not been given to the company.

CHICAGO TELEPHONE COMPANY RATE REVISION.

In previous reports we have shown that the City Comptroller has taken the first steps with the Chicago Telephone Company toward taking up the regulation of telephone rates as provided for in the ordinance passed November 6, 1907. The Council has been notified of this action and that the City Comptroller in co-operation with this department was ready to offer such assistance as they may require.

During the past year this department has been gathering much necessary data and material which will be needed in making the required regulation of rates. In addition our representative attended all meetings of the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light and its sub-committee appointed to take up this special matter. A digest of the discussions before this committee and sub-committee appears below.

Following a request of the committee on May 2nd that we be present at its meeting of May 9th for the purpose of discussing this matter, the Departments of Finance, Public Service, and Gas and Electricity compared notes and found that we were in full agreement as to the present situation. In order to save the time of the committee and avoid the possibility of the misunderstandings which are apt to arise from verbal statements, we thought it advisable to submit a joint statement. In this joint statement we offered to discuss with the committee any of the points outlined therein, or furnish any other information in our possession.

After discussing the situation as it stands to-day and pointing out the work done by the Departments of Finance and Public Service in the past year relative to the regulation of telephone rates and stating that in the year 1917, 87 per cent of all the applications for rate increases before various regulatory bodies were granted, we came to the following conclusion: viz., that a preliminary investigation should be made in order that the committee may intelligently pass upon the advisability of a rate regulation under the unusual and rapidly changing conditions which exist at this time, and, in the event that they consider a revision advisable, whether an appraisal of the property should be made and what other steps should be taken in order to shape up a fair and equitable schedule of rates.

At the same meeting of this committee on May 9th, Mr. Sunny, president of the Chicago Telephone Company, submitted a detailed statement giving figures for the past five years, and stating that the City division closed the year 1917 with a deficit of $20,000.00. He claimed that on the basis of the last half of the year 1917 the deficit for the year 1918 would be $800,000.00. He also informed the committee that since January 1, 1918, it had been necessary to grant salary and wage increases amounting to about $1,250,000.00 which sum added to the above estimated deficit of $800,000.00 would make a total deficit of $2,050,000.00 for the year. Because it is probable that the material costs will also increase he estimated that the annual revenue should be increased about $2,500,000.00 or that the expenses should be decreased to that extent. Mr. Sunny suggested three plans by which this could be accomplished, viz.:

PLAN 1. A horizontal increase of 14 per cent in the rates.

PLAN 2. Abolition of all flat rate service.

PLAN 3. Increase the price of all flat rate service 75 per cent.

The first plan is a simple increase in the rates to produce the desired revenue, while the second and third plans are presented as an attempt to place the burden on the flat rate users who are not now paying their share of the expenses. The second and third plans are designed not so much to produce the additional revenue as to bring about economies of operation by eliminating the waste which is always incident to the flat rate in any form of public service. Mr. Sunny also recommended a number of minor economies and readjustments such as the abolition of the jack per station plan of four-party service and the establishment of a rental charge for P. B. X. equipment. In view of this definite statement from the Telephone Company the committee thought it advisable to refer the matter to a sub-committee. At the sub-committee meeting on May 17th, General Manager Abbott of the telephone company discussed the situation further. The sub-committee then decided to invite those engineers who submitted propositions on November 22, 1917, to appear before them on May 24th, and advise us as to their opinion on this problem, especially as effected by the statements of Mr. Sunny and Mr. Abbott.

At the meeting of May 24th, Messrs. J. G. Wray, K. B. Miller, J. C. Kelsey, H. M. Friendly, E. J. Bachelder, E. W. Bemis, and W. N. Furthman appeared before the committee. A written statement was submitted from Mr. King. Mr. Sunny and other representatives of the telephone company were also present. A general discussion was had and the consensus of opinion of those present was that no extensive appraisal should be made at this time. The sub-committee then requested those engineers present to submit estimates of cost of conducting the investigation along the lines above outlined.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) G. W. CUMMINGS,
Telephone Supervisor.

Commissioner of Public Service.

Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred (April 22, 1918, page 16) an order for cooperation with the political, civic and other organizations of the city to promote the proposed constitutional convention for the State of Illinois, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to submit the following report formulated by its sub-committee and recommend concurrence in said report.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) OTTO KERNER,
Chairman.

Hon. Otto Kerner, Chairman, Judiciary Committee, City Council, Chicago, Illinois:

Dear Sir—The Sub-Committee to whom was referred the resolution relative to the Constitutional Convention, begs to report as follows:

I.

The present constitution of the State of Illinois was adopted in 1870. At that time the state had a population of two and one-half million, and the City of Chicago had a population of three hundred thousand. To-day, the state has a population of six million, and the City of Chicago has a population of over two and one-half million. At that time, 19 per cent of the population lived in cities; now, sixty-four per cent of the population or nearly four million people are residents of municipalities, and there has grown up within the state a marvelous city, the second largest in the nation, having problems distinctly different from the rest of the State, and requiring special treatment in any organic structure designed for the whole state.

The constitution of 1870 did not confine itself to the enunciation of fundamental rights, and to providing a framework for government. Coming as it did during the reconstruction period following the Civil War, it made provision for the many changed conditions of that period. It provided in detail for the various departments of government and made numerous regulations relative to the revenue of the state, county, and municipal corporations. It contained provisions relating to banks, railroads, and warehouses, and for township and county governments. It was inevitable that many of these provisions should outlive their usefulness. The City of Chicago, by reason of its rapid evolution, has particularly suffered.

II.

In pursuance of the constitution, there have been established within the city either to evade the debt limitations placed on municipalities or for other reasons, twenty-one local governments, each of which, independent of the other, govern the people of Chicago, and manage its numerous activities.

Three paramount evils are the result of this system:

1. The multiplicity of elective officers for these numerous governments has caused ballots of absurd and confusing length to be placed before the voters. At times as many as three hundred names are upon the ballot. Judicious discrimination by the voter is rendered impossible, and elections are mere haphazard guesses. The scramble for first place upon the ballots is an amazing tribute to this lack of intelligence in our elections.

2. Confusion, waste, overlapping, contradictory regulations, lack of centralized and co-ordinated management, are the result of this hydra-headed government. Each department is independent, and shifts for itself. Thus, the City of Chicago is today having litigation with the County of Cook, and with the Sanitary District. What would any business organization think of a system whereby its own departments were required to litigate disputed questions. It has been estimated that three million dollars per year is the waste caused by this system.

3. Each of these branches of government draws its own separate revenue, which it expends without reference to the other. This necessarily results in unbalanced expenditures. Thus, the City of Chicago proper receives but twenty-five per cent of all taxes collected in the City of Chicago, with which it must provide for the policing, fire protection, health, refuse collection, and street cleanliness. This is emphasized at this time when these major activities are at a minimum because of lack of revenue, while other branches of the city government have sufficient funds to take care of far less important work.

III.

The constitution of 1870 provides that taxes should be uniform in respect to persons and property within the jurisdiction of the body imposing the same. This has been construed by the Supreme Court to mean that personal and real property must be taxed alike. The provision was adopted at a time when property generally throughout the State of Illinois consisted of land or personalty connected with land, capable of easy detection and assessment. Through the economic development of the last half century, the bulk of property in a large city has assumed a much more subtle and intangible form. Stocks, bonds, mortgages, and other securities cannot be taxed equally with land; and unlike land, they easily escape detection, and evade taxation under the present taxing methods. The City of Chicago has suffered especially by reason of this provision. With the growth of the City, this class of personal property has increased, but has furnished no revenue. Consequently, the revenues of the city have not grown with its increasing needs, and the city has been hampered and obstructed in all of its municipal activities.

IV.

By reason of the limitations in the constitution, many concededly desirable functions of a great city have been rendered impossible. We will give here two examples of the many constitutional restrictions of this character.

The debt limitation of the constitution has been held to apply to securities issued by a municipality payable out of the revenue of municipally owned public utility. This has made practically impossible acquisition by the city of any public utilities, so that while the city has the naked right to own public utilities, it is in reality denied that right by the constitution.

An ordinance providing for the removal of snow and ice by property owners from sidewalks adjacent to their property has been held unconstitutional. The inability to pass such an ordinance by reason of this constitutional limitation is undoubtedly responsible for the loss of many lives each winter. Numerous other illustrations could be cited.

V.

The suffrage act of the legislature enfranchising women was compelled to omit, owing to constitutional limitation, the offices provided for in the constitution. This has resulted in an anomalous situation, whereby women may vote for presidential electors, but cannot vote for county commissioners and other offices. Complete suffrage can only be obtained by changing the Constitution.

VI.

There are many other provisions and restrictions in the constitution which have outlived their usefulness and application, but the foregoing is sufficient to justify the action of the City Council in endorsing the proposed constitutional convention and in urging a favorable vote therefor.

The Sub-Committee recommends:

1. As the members of the city council are more familiar with the needs of the city which cannot be supplied except by changing the constitution, they should be requested to interest themselves in urging their constituency through the various ward organizations to vote favorably for a constitutional convention.

2. Copies of this report should be printed and distributed prior to the Fall election.

3. The Sub-Committee has received a letter which is attached hereto, from Hon. Orrin N. Carter, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, who is chairman of the constitutional convention association, inviting the Sub-Committee to co-operate with that association. The Sub-Committee therefore recommends that its existence be continued and that it be directed to co-operate with the association in such ways as it may deem advisable.

SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS.)
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, July 12, 1918.)

Hon. U. S. Schwartz, Alderman, City of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.:

My Dear Alderman Schwartz—I understand you are Chairman of a Council Committee who have taken somewhat active interest in the promotion of a favorable vote for the Constitutional Convention at the November election.

As you know, I am now acting as Chairman of an organizing committee for the entire State, including Chicago, to obtain such favorable vote at the election to be held November 5th next. I should be very much gratified to have the Chicago Council Committee, as well as the City Council take any possible action that will help to educate or forward the movement for a favorable vote at the coming Fall election, either by active personal work or by distributing circulars or other propaganda literature, through political or other organizations, or by speakers, to assist in educating the public as to the need of a Constitutional Convention and for obtaining a favorable vote for that purpose.

Anyway that I can co-operate with you or the Council on this question, don't hesitate to call on me.

Sincerely yours,

ORRIN N. CARTER.

Gas Rates: in the Matter of an Order Entered by the Illinois Public Utilities Commission Authorizing Increases.

The Mayor submitted the following communication, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Gas Litigation:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
CHICAGO, August 2, 1918.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—We are confronted with a most serious situation.

By an order of the Public Utilities Commission with reference to gas rates, a burden has been laid upon the people of the city estimated at from $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 for a single year; and what the future may bring forth is left in doubt.

Obviously, our duty is to do all in our power to lift this burden, or—failing in that—to decrease it as much as possible.

How can this be accomplished? None of us is in a position to determine what is best to be done; but we are expected to accept and act solely upon the advice of Donald R. Richberg.

He was selected to represent the city in the gas litigation by former Alderman Charles E. Merriam and was employed by your Honorable Body.

You also ordered that he represent the city before the Public Utilities Commission to the exclusion of the Corporation Counsel. When in the Sutter case the Corporation Counsel procured a decision in favor of the people and against the gas company, Richberg criticised the Corporation Counsel severely and you concurred in the criticism. Now that Richberg has met a disastrous defeat before the Public Utilities Commission, he has, by promulgating lies about me, attempted to shift the blame from his own shoulders, where it belongs.

There has already been expended under his direction more than $450,000.00, and this enormous expense is constantly being added to.

At the demand of the City Council he represented the city before the Public Utilities Commission to the exclusion of the Corporation Counsel.

He had the assistance of the Engineering and Accounting Force, to which a great part of the enormous sum above mentioned has been paid. He handled the city's case just as he saw fit, without let or hindrance or interference by any one. And we must admit that no lawyer could have done worse than he has done.

Virtually a judgment has been rendered against the people of the city for from $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 for gas rates for one year. I, as chief executive of the city, and you as aldermen, should consider the situation calmly and dispassionately, just as we would consider the case of a judgment for $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 against a private corporation of which we were respectively president and directors.

Our first duty is to engage competent counsel. In my judgment Mr. Richberg has neither the caliber, character or temperament to qualify him to represent the city in the present circumstances. No one of us would for one moment think of employing him in so important a matter to represent us personally or to represent a corporation in which we were personally interested.

So far as I have any voice, I shall insist that a lawyer of greater capacity than Mr. Richberg be engaged to represent the city in the present great emergency.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) WM. HALE THOMPSON,
Mayor.

The Corporation Counsel submitted the following communication, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Gas Litigation:

DEPARTMENT OF LAW,
CHICAGO, August 2, 1918.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—At a meeting of the Gas Litigation Committee on Wednesday, July 31, 1918, Donald R. Richberg made a statement as follows:

> "In considering any future action by the City, the members of the City Council cannot overlook the fact that the city administration has been persistently opposing for months the efforts of the City Council to protect the interest of the gas consumers through special counsel acting with the aid of engineering and accountant experts"; and more to the same effect.

Such statement was absolutely false and without foundation.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Daniel A. Roberts has attended all the hearings in court and before the Public Utilities Commission, and has done all in his power to aid Mr. Richberg in the conduct of the cases. Since Judge Torrison's recent decision, and acting in compliance therewith, he has taken a subordinate position and has confined himself to making such suggestions to Mr. Richberg in aid of the litigation as from time to time occurred to him.

There has been some delay in the approval of bills owing to the controversy as to Mr. Richberg's right to represent the City, independent of and in defiance of the Corporation Counsel as head of the Law Department.

An arrangement has been arrived at between the Corporation Counsel and the Gas Litigation Committee by which a test case will be begun by Mr. Richberg in which it is hoped that the Supreme Court will settle the question of authority above referred to; and in the meantime the bills of Mr. Richberg except one amounting to a little over $1,000 will be approved by the Corporation Counsel provided that Mr. Richberg prosecutes his test case in good faith.

The delay in approving these bills has in no way interfered with the hearing before the Public Utilities Commission or the hearing before Judge Torrison.

It may be interesting to note the amount of Mr. Richberg's charges as follows:

January, 1918, (paid)	$1,350.00
February, 1918, (paid)	1,287.50
March, 1918, (unpaid)	1,400.00
April, 1918, (unpaid)	1,537.50
May, 1918, (unpaid)	1,237.50
June and July, 1918 (unpaid)	2,778.00
Total	$9,590.50

In addition are the charges of Glenn E. Plumb from January 1 to July 1, 1918, amounting to $5,575.00.

On the other hand, the Corporation Counsel, through his assistants, has for months been trying to get from Mr. Richberg copies of the papers and briefs filed by him in these litigations. But Mr. Richberg, though frequently requested, has persistently neglected to furnish any of the same to the Corporation Counsel's office.

Among the bills which have been presented to the Corporation Counsel for his approval is one for printing briefs to the amount of $289.10, and yet the Corporation Counsel has been unable to procure from Mr. Richberg any copy of these briefs. The result is that in this important litigation the Corporation Counsel is not able to obtain copies of the papers and briefs in the case so that they can be made a part of the records of the Law Department of the City.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) CHESTER E. CLEVELAND,
First Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

Corporation Counsel.

The following is said order as passed:

WHEREAS, The State Public Utilities Commission, upon application of The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, filed January 16, 1918, has recently issued an order purporting to give authority to said company to increase the rates to be charged for gas in the City of Chicago in an amount estimated at about $5,000,000 annually, and said company is about to increase its rates in accordance with the terms of said order; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has heretofore granted the City of Chicago power to regulate gas rates to be charged in said city; and

WHEREAS, The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company on July 31, 1917, accepted an ordinance passed by this Council June 25, 1917, and in so doing made a contract with the City of Chicago wherein said company agreed not to seek to alter the rates fixed in said ordinance for one year and also agreed that the City of Chicago should have the power and conceded the authority of said City to regulate rates by action of the City Council; and

WHEREAS, The members of this Council have been informed by the counsel for the City in gas matters that relief may be had against the contemplated increase in gas rates through appropriate legal proceedings; therefore, it is Ordered, That the Committee on Gas Litigation of the City Council take all steps necessary and appropriate in its judgment to institute and prosecute legal proceedings in behalf of the City of Chicago to prevent any increase of gas rates in Chicago in violation of the ordinances of the City of Chicago and of the laws of the State of Illinois; and that Donald R. Richberg, Special Counsel for the City of Chicago in Gas Matters, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to prepare and prosecute a bill for injunction in behalf of the City of Chicago in a court of competent jurisdiction to restrain The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company from increasing gas rates in Chicago in accordance with the recent order of the State Public Utilities Commission and to restrain said Commission from enforcing its said order; and, with the approval of the Committee on Gas Litigation, said Special Counsel is authorized and directed to institute, assist in or prosecute any other legal proceedings appropriate to prevent said contemplated increase in gas rates and to prevent any violation by said company or said Commission of the provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago or of the laws of the State of Illinois affecting gas rates or service in Chicago; said Special Counsel being at all times subject to the further directions of this Council and of its Committee on Gas Litigation; and, it is further Ordered, That the expenses of the work herein authorized, when approved by the Committee on Gas Litigation, shall be paid out of the funds heretofore appropriated for the use of said Committee and that all officials and employes of the City of Chicago shall render prompt aid and co-operation to said Committee upon request, in order to expedite the legal proceedings herein authorized and to obtain early relief against unreasonable gas rates for the people of the City of Chicago.

The Committee on Gas Litigation submitted the following report:

CHICAGO, August 2, 1918.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Gas Litigation herewith submits reports by Donald R. Richberg, Special Counsel for the City of Chicago in gas matters, and a report by Edward W. Bemis, consulting engineer, dated July 10 and July 13, 1918, respectively, and recommend that the same be published and filed.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) H. D. CAPITAIN,
Chairman.

Ald. Capitain moved to concur in said report.

No request being made by any two Aldermen present to defer consideration of said report for final action thereon until the next regular meeting, and the question being put,

The motion prevailed.

The following are the reports recommended for publication in the foregoing report:

STATEMENT CONCERNING GAS RATE INCREASE PREPARED BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON GAS LITIGATION FOR THE MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL, AUGUST 2, 1918.

A majority of the State Public Utilities Commission has approved granting permission to The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company to increase gas rates immediately in the City of Chicago. Commissioner Shaw, who heard the evidence for the Commission, and Commissioner Funk, dissented from the majority opinion on the ground that "the increase in rates granted by the majority vote of this Commission is greater than warranted and in excess of that which the public should be required to pay in order to secure adequate service and competent management and to maintain the integrity of the property."

The following increases have been approved:

	Present Rate	Increased Rate
Minimum monthly charge for first 350 cubic feet	30c	37c
Primary rate (from 350 to 10,000 cu. ft.)	70c	88c
Secondary rate (from 10,000 to 50,000 cu. ft.)	65c	82c
Tertiary rate (all over 50,000 cu. ft.)	40c	65c

The minimum monthly charge of 37c is for 3, 5 and 10 light meters. Minimum charges for larger meters have been increased proportionately. From the reports of the Company we may estimate that gas sales will be divided about as follows:

	Of Total Consumption
Gas charged on 350-ft. basis about	9½%
Gas charged on primary rate about	68%
Gas charged on secondary rate about	10½%
Gas charged on tertiary rate about	12%

The City estimated total sales for the coming year at 27,500,000,000 feet. On this basis the money increase for the coming year has been estimated by the City's representatives to be about as follows:

Increase on minimum monthly charge about	$ 500,000
Increase on gas sold at primary rate about	3,336,600
Increase on gas sold at secondary rate about	490,960
Increase on gas sold at tertiary rate about	825,000
Total	$5,152,560

The Company asked for a 30% increase on the present average price of 69c and estimated that the increase would produce $5,159,012.76. Therefore, it appears that the Commission has granted the Company practically the entire increase requested, although the increase has not been applied as a flat 30%. According to the Company's own figures for the last three months' operations reported—March-May—the Company earned about $333,000 less than bond interest. On this basis the Company's deficit for the coming year would be about $1,333,000. Subtracting this amount from the $5,152,560 increase allowed, gives the Company something like $3,800,000 over bond interest, or practically 10% on its outstanding capital stock of $38,500,000.

This computation is conservative because it includes allowing to the Company all the charges for operating expenses claimed by the City to be improper, such as $300,000 annually to Indiana Natural Gas & Oil Company and $300,000 annually to the Ogden Gas Company, and $250,000 for a "contingent reserve" and $115,000 for rentals to the Public Service Company, all of which items were criticized by the Commission's engineer. Nor does this computation include an estimate of the increased income which the City claimed (and demonstrated) that the Company could obtain from efficient operation, or the increased income which the Company is apparently certain to obtain from diminishing oil cost and from increased profits from by-products.

The City's representatives who have followed and analyzed closely the record made by the Company before the Public Utilities Commission are unable to see any justification for the increased rates approved by the Commission. War conditions are the announced excuse for the Commission's ruling. But war conditions certainly do not justify imposing upon the public the burden of paying a rate sufficient to meet bond interest and earn in addition practically 10% on the capital stock of the Company when, according to the report of the Utilities Commission's own engineer, Mr. A. S. B. Little, the value of the Company's property used in the public service is little more than the amount of its bonds.

The small consumer will pay under these rates:
94c for the first 1,000 cubic feet.
$1.82 for the first 2,000 cubic feet.
$2.70 for the first 3,000 cubic feet.

Probably two-thirds of the 700,000 gas consumers of Chicago will thus be forced to pay between 90c and 94c per thousand cubic feet for gas under these rates, although in New York City the rate for 22 candle power gas is still 80c, despite "war conditions," a rate about equivalent to Chicago's present rate for the present 9 candle power gas.

The City's position in regard to the Company's application has been as follows:

1. The Company obtained the consent of the City to reduce from 22 candle power to a heat unit standard of 565 btu upon the express agreement

(a) that neither party would seek to change the rates fixed within one year, and

(b) that as long as the new standard should be maintained the Company would agree to abide by regulation of rates by the City of Chicago.

When the Company violated this agreement by applying for a 22 per cent increase January 16, 1918, Special Counsel for the City opposed a consideration of the application by the Utilities Commission on the ground that the application was a breach of contract and that the Utilities Commission had no jurisdiction to increase the rates. The Utilities Commission ruled that it would not permit an increase of rates prior to August 1, 1918, in view of the contract with the City, but that it would proceed with a hearing on the Company's application.

2. When the Commission began hearings on the Company's application, the City entered a Special Appearance maintaining its objection to the jurisdiction of the Commission to fix rates, but offering its aid to the Commission in the investigation by the Commission of the Gas Company's affairs. The City has steadily maintained the position before the Commission that the Commission, as an administrative body, could examine into the Gas Company's operation, but that the Commission had no authority to fix gas rates; that this power had been given to the City Council by the State Legislature and had been conceded by the Gas Company to be in the City Council. Also, it may be stated that if the Utilities Commission has acted without jurisdiction given by law it cannot be properly claimed that any jurisdiction has been given the Commission by consent; and that the City has not waived any of its rights because it has very carefully insisted on its objections to the Commission's jurisdiction at every stage.

If the City Council desires to take further action to protect gas consumers against the proposed exorbitant rates, it would be appropriate to authorize the filing of a bill in the Circuit or Superior Court of Cook County praying an injunction to restrain the Company from putting into effect the rates which the Public Utilities Commission has attempted to authorize. There are numerous grounds upon which the City may seek this relief, among which may be stated the following:

(a) That the Company had no right to apply to the Commission for authority to increase rates, having agreed to submit to City regulation.

(b) That the Commission had no jurisdiction to enter an order authorizing rates to be increased over rates fixed by the City Council.

Even assuming the Company's contention that the Commission under its general powers has authority over gas rates in the City of Chicago, the Commission has not exercised its general powers lawfully because

(c) The Commission has not attempted to fix a "reasonable" rate—that is, a rate based upon a valuation of the property used for public service.

(d) The Commission has no authority to fix an "emergency rate." (This authority is specifically granted to some State Commissions, but has not been granted to the Illinois Commission).

The City Council may properly act in this matter: First, to prevent a breach of contract by the Gas Company and the violation of a City Ordinance; Second, to protect the City's interest as a gas consumer; and Third, to protect the interests of the gas consuming public. In the judgment of counsel there is ample justification for a temporary injunction to restrain the Company from charging the excessive rates approved by the Public Utilities Commission; and upon a fair consideration of the merits of the City's complaint counsel believes that such a temporary injunction should be made permanent.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed). DONALD R. RICHBERG,
Special Counsel for City of Chicago in Gas Matters.

August 1, 1918.

REPORT TO THE COMMITTEE ON GAS LITIGATION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

To the Honorable, the Committee on Gas Litigation of the City Council of the City of Chicago:

A report previously made to this Committee details the prosecution of the Gas Rate Litigation to May 1, 1918. During the months of May and June four (4) matters have principally engaged the attention of your counsel.

(1) Hearings in the Circuit Court to determine whether the case entitled: Peoples Gas Light & Coke Co. vs. City of Chicago should be heard before the court or referred to a Master.

(2) Hearings before the State Public Utilities Commission upon the Company's application to increase gas rates 30%.

(3) Submission of Suggestions of amicus curiae that the Supreme Court should dismiss the case entitled: Sutter vs. Peoples Gas Light & Coke Company taken under advisement by the court at the June Term.

(4) Controversy with the City administration concerning the claimed authority of the Corporation Counsel to control the Gas Rate Litigation.

Progress in the above matters and results obtained are reported as follows:

I.

Prosecution of the rate case in the Circuit Court was delayed through the entire month of May while the court considered arguments upon the claimed right of the Corporation Counsel to dismiss Special Counsel and assume charge of the case. Judge Torrison decided against the Corporation Counsel on May 25th and June 4th the hearing of the rate case was resumed. The Company being forced to begin presentation of evidence made a motion to refer the entire case to a Master in Chancery. Arguments on this motion occupied June 4th, 5th and 6th, following which briefs were prepared and submitted to the court. The court held the matter under advisement for some time showing appreciation of the importance of the question to be decided. Special Counsel for the City took the position that the case should not be referred to a Master for the following reasons:

1. That the rights of the parties had not been determined and as a matter of proper practice a case should not be referred to a master until the rights of the parties have been determined and the law laid down upon which the master will determine the competency of evidence offered.

2. That questions, which would inevitably arise as soon as the Company endeavored to present evidence, were highly important and more or less difficult legal questions concerning: the rights of the Company under its charter; the legal principles upon which would be determined what sum of money represented the rate basis upon which would depend the reasonableness of the rates fixed in the ordinance; the title which the Company had in its property; and what "values" were properly to be considered in fixing a rate basis. All of these questions must eventually be determined by the court, and, if not determined in advance of a reference, would almost certainly result in the taking of a great mass of evidence subsequently to be rejected, thus causing long delay and much unnecessary expense.

3. As practical considerations to be considered in connection with the legal questions, Special Counsel urged upon the court the very large expense for Master's fees and stenographers' fees allowable under the statute, which could be avoided if such evidence, for example, as the 57 volumes of the inventory of the Company's property were introduced in open court instead of before a Master where the Master would have the right to charge 15c for each 100 words. Counsel estimated that at least $25,000.00 in costs could be saved by beginning the taking of evidence in open court.

The Company's attorneys took the position among other reasons for demanding a reference that they did not wish to proceed with continuous hearings as would be necessary in court, but would wish a great many continuances before the Master in order to prepare for further evidence or to cross-examine on evidence submitted. This argument reinforced the contention of Special Counsel that hearings before a Master would be productive of long delay in the trial of this litigation.

On June 25th Judge Torrison made his ruling upon the Company's motion to refer the case to a Master and denied the motion without prejudice to either party to make a motion to refer subsequently. The court stated that undoubtedly a great deal of evidence in the case must be heard at some time before a Master, but that the time for a reference had not yet arrived and the company should proceed to present its evidence at the outset in open court to order that the rights of the parties might be determined. The Company's attorneys made further arguments for delay, but the court set the case for hearing immediately following a case then on trial before the court.

On July 1st, therefore, the parties were waiting the termination of a case on hearing before Judge Torrison with the expectation that the trial of the gas case would begin as soon as the pending case was finished. (Note: Under order of court the gas company began the presentation of its evidence on July 9th.)

II.

Hearings before the State Public Utilities Commission were also delayed somewhat by the controversy between the Corporation Counsel and Special Counsel, although the Gas Company proceeded by agreement of the parties to present some evidence on May 23rd. On June 7th, Assistant Corporation Counsel Righeimer appeared before the Commission and stated that the Corporation Counsel would submit temporarily to the decision of Judge Torrison (until the same should be reversed by a higher court) and not interfere further with Special Counsel's representation of the city before the Utilities Commission. The Company concluded the presentation of its evidence upon its application for the 30% increase on June 7th and Special Counsel moved that the Commission deny the application on the ground that the Company had failed to make out a case for increased rates. The motion was taken under advisement by the Commission. Thereupon Special Counsel proceeded with the cross examination of Vice President E. J. E. Ward, the principal witness for the Gas Company. In the course of this examination the Company was called upon to produce a mass of documents, some of which requests by counsel for the city were sustained by the Commission and some of which were not granted. These hearings before the Commission were held June 7, 12 and 27, and a great deal of very important information regarding the operations of the Gas Company was brought out on the testimony of the Company's witnesses and cross examination by Special Counsel for the City. On June 28, Mr. A. S. B. Little, the Commission's Gas Expert, testified by direction of the Commission and presented an elaborate report on the operations of the Company, the valuation of its property and reasonable gas rates. The cross examination of Mr. Little by the Company's attorneys and by Special Counsel for the city was continued to July 8.

In brief summary it may be stated that the hearings before the State Public Utilities Commission have demonstrated, in the judgment of Special Counsel:

1. That the Gas Company has not been able to substantiate its claimed right to a 30% increase in gas rates.

2. That the Company's claimed right to any increase in gas rates has not been sufficiently supported by evidence.

3. That the Gas Company, itself, recognizes the weakness of its case in that the Company moved the Commission, in the course of the hearings, for permission to increase rates August 1st upon the condition that the Company would then proceed to make proof of the value of its property, upon which to support the increase requested, with the agreement to refund the excess charges collected during the proceedings if the Commission should subsequently find that it was not entitled to the increased rates allowed. This motion has not yet been argued.

4. As a by-product of the investigation before the Utilities Commission it may be stated that the facts brought out by the Commission's Engineer, Mr. Little, as to the value of the Company's property and as to the unreasonably high operating expenses of the Company, gives strong support to the City's contentions in the Circuit Court litigation to the effect that the rates fixed by the Ordinance of 1911 were just and reasonable.

III.

The case entitled Sutter vs. The Peoples Gas Light & Coke Company was submitted to the Supreme Court at the June Term. The attorneys for the parties in that case presented to the court a record over one thousand pages long, an abstract of record three hundred twenty-seven pages long, brief and argument for the Gas Company eighty-eight pages long with a reply brief for the Company ninety-seven pages long and a brief and argument for Sutter one hundred twenty-four pages long. The abstract and briefs could not be obtained by Special Counsel for the City until a few days before the case was called for hearing in the Supreme Court, June 19th. In the short time allowed Special Counsel prepared a motion for leave to appear as amicus curiae in the Supreme Court and Suggestions in Support of the Motion, a printed document of sixty-nine pages. The Supreme Court granted the motion giving Special Counsel leave to appear as amicus curiae and to file his Suggestions to be considered by the court when the case was taken under advisement. Attorneys for the Gas Company misread the motion of amicus curiae and replied to it as though it were a motion to dismiss the case, whereupon Mr. Justice Cooke made the announcement for the court that there was no sufficient showing that the cause should be dismissed. Special Counsel was not permitted to participate in the oral argument of the case (which occurred on the last day of the term when the docket was overcrowded), but has taken advantage of the opportunity given him to appear as amicus curiae to submit formally his Suggestions to the court. On June 29th a letter to the Chief Justice, accompanied by a thirty-six page pamphlet entitled: "Suggestions of amicus curiae" was presented to the court. Special Counsel has suggested that the Supreme Court should dismiss the suit on four grounds.

1. That Sutter has no right of action (because his right to recovery has not yet been determined in the Circuit Court).

2. That the Municipal Court had no jurisdiction (because the Circuit Court has prior and exclusive jurisdiction of the rights of the parties).

3. That the Supreme Court is asked to decide only moot questions (because the questions presented to the Supreme Court are those involved in the Circuit Court and not in the Municipal Court, from which the appeal has been taken).

4. That the record shows clearly that the case is fictitious and collusive (because Sutter has brought a suit with the consent of the Gas Company out of which neither Sutter nor any other consumer, but only the Gas Company, can derive any benefit).

No action in the matter of this case in the Supreme Court can be executed until the court reconvenes in October.

IV.

On Friday, May 3rd, Special Counsel submitted his report to the Special Gas Rate Litigation Committee, previously referred to, wherein he pointed out that the interference of the Corporation Counsel with the conduct of the gas rate litigation was hampering the prosecution of the City's interests and aiding the Gas Company. On the following day the Corporation Counsel announced that he had "discharged" Special Counsel from the service of the City whereupon a controversy arose, as to the respective authority of the Corporation Counsel and of Special Counsel, and particularly as to the respective authority of the Corporation Counsel and the City Council to control the conduct of litigation in which the City is interested. The City Council by various resolutions and ordinances approved the opinion of Special Counsel as to the authority of the City Council and approved the conduct of the gas rate litigation by Special Counsel. When the Circuit Court case came on for hearing, May 14, before Judge Torrison the Corporation Counsel, Mr. Ettelson, attempted to revoke the authority of Special Counsel to represent the City in that proceeding despite the previous and pending action of the City Council. Arguments on the legal questions involved were made May 14th and 15th before Judge Torrison and while the matter was taken under advisement by the court briefs were submitted by the Corporation Counsel and by Special Counsel. On May 25th Judge Torrison decided > "that the City Council was acting within its powers when it employed Special Counsel in this case and that the Corporation Counsel had no power to discharge him as such Special Counsel and the motion of the Corporation Counsel for leave to file such discharge and a revocation of his powers as solicitor for the City of Chicago in this case will be denied."

The court thereupon entered an order permitting Samuel A. Ettelson to enter his appearance as Corporation Counsel but not to the exclusion of Special Counsel and providing "that in case of any conflict between said Corporation Counsel and said Special Counsel, in the management of said cause, this court will recognize the authority of the Special Counsel as controlling."

The Corporation Counsel prayed an appeal to the Appellate Court which was denied, the decision of the court in this matter being not subject to review.

On May 27th the Mayor stated in a message to the City Council:

"The Corporation Counsel advises me that, in his opinion, the conclusion reached by Judge Torrison is unsound, and that steps will be taken to have the Supreme Court pass upon this question at the earliest opportunity."

Inasmuch as the Corporation Counsel could not appeal from Judge Torrison's ruling it is not apparent just what steps the Mayor had in mind, but it should be noted that the June Term of the Supreme Court has passed without any such steps having been taken and, therefore, no decision of this matter by the Supreme Court could possibly be had in any event before next October, and apparently no decision then.

In the same massage of May 27th the Mayor said:

"But since a cardinal principle of my administration is obedience to the law, I shall, in the meantime, and unless and until the Supreme Court decides to the contrary, consider the law to be as held by Judge Torrison; and shall not allow the controversy, as to who shall represent the City, to interfere with or impede the progress of these litigations."

Later in the same message the Mayor said:

"And since I have promised the people to do all in my power to protect their rights and interests in these litigations I have directed the Corporation Counsel, pending the settlement by the Supreme Court of the question of his authority fully to represent the City, to appear in these litigations and do all in his power, in the subordinate capacity in which Judge Torrison has placed him, and to expedite these litigations and protect and advance the rights of the city and the people to the extent of his ability."

Further, in vetoing the order in question, the Mayor stated:

"But, if you see fit to pass it over my veto, you must do so with the clear understanding that you are assuming the full responsibility of getting results for the city and the people and of protecting them against unnecessary delay and extravagant expenditures in carrying on these litigations with the Gas Company."

I desire to call to the attention of the Committee the subsequent conduct of the Corporation Counsel and the action of the City Comptroller with regard to the conduct of the gas litigation in order that the Committee may determine whether or not the city administration is obeying the law as laid down by Judge Torrison and whether or not the city administration is permitting the City Council to assume "the full responsibility of getting results." At the outset I will state that it is my opinion that the administration is not obeying the law and that it is deliberately hampering the efforts of the Committee and Special Counsel to get results.

The method adopted by the administration is to delay all pay rolls and to refuse to pay the accountants employed to protect the City's interests and to refuse to pay Special Counsel and his Associate, Mr. Plumb, for legal services rendered, with the obvious purpose of starving out the accountants and attorneys so that they will be unable to continue to work for the City.

Following the controversy between the Corporation Counsel and the City Council the pay rolls of the engineering force and the accounting force, working under the direction of Dr. Bemis, and the accounts of the attorneys were referred by Mr. Pike, the City Comptroller, to the Corporation Counsel. The Corporation Counsel rendered an opinion, dated June 24th, 1918, to the effect that the accounting pay rolls should not be approved (and apparently that the accounts for legal services should not be approved) for the following ostensible reasons:

First, as to the accounting pay rolls: The Corporation Counsel takes the position that Mr. Andrew Sangster, the chief accountant, renders accounts for his accountants on a certain basis and actually pays the accountants a lower salary and that he will not approve of this practice of "Mr. Sangster in charging the city more for employes than they are paid and himself pocketing the difference."

The implications of this opinion are a reflection upon Mr. Sangster Dr. Bemis and Special Counsel who approved the pay rolls which is entirely unwarranted and comes with particularly bad grace from the very officials who approved the making of the contracts under which these payments are made with full knowledge of the terms and who have approved, for nearly two years, pay rolls of precisely the same character as those now disapproved.

The history of this matter is as follows: The Ordinance of May 22, 1916, authorizing the contract with Edward W. Bemis was approved by the Corporation Counsel prior to its passage. The contract provided in the ordinance was submitted to the Corporation Counsel and approved by him on June 19, 1916. The contract was subsequently approved by the Mayor and countersigned by the Comptroller. Prior to the signing of the contract by these officials questions as to the propriety of the arrangements made with Mr. Sangster by Dr. Bemis were discussed in detail with the Comptroller. The question of what payments should be allowed to Mr. Sangster for the services of accountants was considered thoroughly by the City Comptroller, by the Efficiency Division of the Finance Committee and by the Gas Litigation Committee and the exact basis upon which the accounts objected to are rendered was approved by these parties before the Bemis contract was signed, so that the Sangster contract with Bemis was approved as a part of the City's contract with Bemis.

The Sangster contract is an employment of accountants "at the usual and customary rates for such work" in accordance with the provision in the Bemis contract. The Sangster contract provides for an allowance to Mr. Sangster of certain per diems for accountants which allowances are distinguished in the contract from the allowance for example for clerks of "compensation actually paid." The allowance for senior accountants of $25.00 per day and junior accountants of $15.00 per day include not only the actual compensation of such accountants, but an overhead charge to cover Mr. Sangster's office expenses. This is the usual and customary method of rendering bills for services of accountants. The City has paid thousands of dollars for accounting work in the past to other firms of accountants on precisely the same basis. The overhead charge is not a profit to Mr. Sangster, but is the customary method of covering the expenses of his office. Mr. Sangster renders no bills to the City of Chicago for his office expenses such as are rendered by Dr. Bemis, whose payrolls cover only the exact amounts paid to his employes. Mr. Sangster pays his office rent, telephone, stationery and miscellaneous office expenses. At times he has had as many as four employes working on City business whose compensation was paid by him out of the overhead charge. In addition, Mr. Sangster pays the general expenses of keeping up his organization, as every accountant must. The City cannot employ an accounting firm without paying in some manner the expenses incident to maintaining the organization and its offices, and the customary method among all accountants for covering these expenses is by the so-called overhead charge. Therefore, the Corporation Counsel's implication that Mr. Sangster is "pocketing the difference" between the salaries of his employes and the payroll charges, arises either out of the ignorance of the Corporation Counsel or his willingness to impute dishonesty to an honest and faithful worker for the city, as a means to justify the Corporation Counsel in crippling the City in its fight with the Gas Company. The Corporation Counsel should consider that his malicious criticism of Dr. Bemis and Mr. Sangster applies with as much force to the City Comptroller who has approved the Sangster payrolls for nearly two years with full knowledge of the facts.

2nd: As to the accounts for legal services. I have not been favored with any statement from the Comptroller or the Corporation Counsel as to why accounts for legal services have not been vouchered. In the Corporation Counsel's letter, regarding the accounting payrolls, he states that "neither Mr. Richberg, as Special Counsel, nor Alderman Capitain, as Chairman of the Committee on Gas Litigation, has lawful authority to approve such vouchers; but that in our opinion it is essential that the Corporation Counsel, as the head of the legal department of the City, should approve such payrolls and vouchers in order to constitute the legal approval thereof." Perhaps this denial of authority is the reason why accounts for legal services have not been vouchered. It seems, however, that the refusal to pay accounts for legal services conflicts with the declaration of the Mayor and the announced policy of his administration to obey the law. Refusal to pay attorneys fees certainly interferes with and impedes the progress of a litigation. Also, it is difficult to see how the Committee can accept the responsibility for getting results if the administration will not permit the Committee to pay for legal services out of funds appropriated to the Committee. Attorneys cannot continue indefinitely to render services without actual compensation. Special Counsel and his Associate Counsel are now giving practically all their time to the litigation in the Circuit Court and before the Utilities Commission, and it is necessary that they should devote themselves practically exclusively to this work to avoid long delays and to accomplish results. No fees have been paid to Mr. Plumb, Associate Counsel, during the year 1918, and his outstanding accounts exceed $4,000.00. No fees have been paid to Special Counsel since March, 1918, and his accounts outstanding aggregate over $5,000.00. If the administration refuses to pay these outstanding accounts, and to honor accounts in the future, the administration must accept the responsibility for impeding progress of the litigation through the obvious expedient of starving out the attorneys. Such action is, of course, a valuable aid to the Gas Company and treachery to the gas consumers. It can hardly be assumed that a member of the City Administration would dare to render such aid to the Gas Company unless such action met with the approval of the head of the City administration, the Mayor.

It has been possible for counsel up to date to carry on this litigation by lending their private credit to the city just as Dr. Bemis saved the situation for the city and gas consumers last fall by borrowing thousands of dollars to maintain the payrolls when the City's corporate funds were declared to be exhausted. But there is a limit to the ability of counsel for the City to carry this burden and I am, therefore, forced to present to your Committee certain alternatives.

1st: Either demand must be made effectively upon the City administration to fulfil the Mayor's pledges and support the gas litigation and cease the present guerilla warfare against the City's chosen representatives, or

2nd: The public at large must be called upon to furnish the funds to carry on the work in the interest of the public, which the City administration is now crippling, or

3rd: The support of public-spirited individuals must be obtained in order to finance temporarily this work in confident expectation that the people of Chicago will insist that the next City administration shall make good the broken pledges of the present administration.

I wish to inform the Committee that I cannot guarantee my ability to continue to carry on the litigation with the Gas Company to obtain the refund of past overcharges and to prevent future overcharges unless the necessary financial support of this work, which is now withheld by the City administration, shall be in some manner definitely assured.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) DONALD R. RICHBERG,
Special Counsel for City of Chicago in Gas Matters.

CHICAGO, July 13, 1918.

Ald. H. D. Capitain, Chairman, Gas Litigation Committee, City Hall, Chicago, Ill.:

DEAR SIR:

RE:—PROGRESS OF THE ENGINEERING AND ACCOUNTING WORK ON THE PEOPLES GAS LIGHT AND COKE COMPANY TO DATE.

The engineering section has completed all the field work, that is, it has listed and measured and otherwise examined all the property of the company. It has also classified and summarized this property in forms suitable for supplying the prices. It is now at work determining the unit prices that should be applied and making the application to the vast quantities of property included within the entire city.

The accounting section has practically completed the financial history of the company; it is now co-operating with the engineers in the investigation of prices, the age of the properties, etc. The entire work is so far completed in both sections, that we are able to advise the attorneys from day to day in the cross examination of the witnesses which the company is beginning to produce in Judge Torrison's court. By the time the company has finished the production of its evidence and will submit to cross examination, we shall be ready to put in our direct evidence.

Another, an important part of our work, has been connected with the application of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company before the State's Utilities Commission to increase the charge of gas 30 per cent after August 1st. Considerable assistance has been asked for by the Special Counsel of the City, and furnished by the engineering and accounting sections in connection with these latter hearings.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) EDWARD W. BEMIS.

SECTION 1. That the Mayor and City Clerk are hereby authorized to accept on behalf of the City of Chicago the certain easement of said Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company dated July 5, 1918, in words and figures, as follows:

"Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company (hereinafter referred to as the 'Railway Company') hereby licenses the City of Chicago, Illinois (hereinafter referred to as the 'City'), to install, maintain and use a seven (7) foot circular reinforced concrete sewer along, over and across the property and underneath the tracks of the Railway Company at Chicago, Illinois, on a strip of land in the South West Quarter (SW¼) of Section Fifteen (15), Township Forty (40) North, Range Thirteen (13) East of the Third (3rd) Principal Meridian, twelve (12) feet in width across the right of way of the Wisconsin Division of the Railway Company, the center line of which strip of land is described as follows:

Said work shall be done in such manner as in no way to interfere with the use of the property or tracks of the Railway Company at the point of crossing, or the operation thereon of any engines, cars or trains, or to endanger the same.

SECOND: If in the judgment of the Railway Company it shall be necessary to provide for its tracks while the said sewer is being laid underneath the same, the Railway Company at its own expense will provide such support.

THIRD: The said City will give to the Chief Engineer of the Railway Company at least ten days' notice in writing before entering upon the property of the Railway Company for the construction or installation of said sewer, or any repairs thereto. In such case, said City may enter upon said property without the ten days' notice above referred to, and shall proceed forthwith to make such repairs, and upon failure to do so within ten days, the Railway Company shall have the right to make said repairs and collect the entire cost thereof from the City. The Railway Company reserves the right in case in its opinion the safety of its tracks and property demands it to make emergency repairs on said sewer without notice to said City and to collect the entire cost thereof from it as herein provided.

FOURTH: The City assumes and agrees to pay for all loss, damage, injury or death, including costs and expenses incident thereto, caused to any person or to the property of any person by or during the construction or installation of said sewer, or by the maintenance, repair or renewal thereof, or by its presence or use upon the property of the Railway Company, or caused by any defect in or failure of said sewer; and the said City further assumes all loss and damage resulting from any act or default of the Railway Company, its officers, agents, servants or employes, or from the operation of said railroad, whether negligent or otherwise, together with the cost of all repairs or renewals to said sewer; and the said City shall forever indemnify the said Railway Company against and save it harmless from all liability for any such loss, damage, injury or death.

The following is said ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, At the time of the preparation of the Annual Appropriation Bill for the Year 1918, a committee representing the banks and large financial interests of the City of Chicago appeared before the Committee on Finance of the City Council and volunteered assistance to meet the payrolls of the City for the last three months of the fiscal year in case the salaries of certain employes of the City were increased to keep pace with the exigencies of war and their largely increased war time expenses; and

WHEREAS, The offer was made in good faith and acted on by the City Council so that such salaries were increased in the appropriation bill to the extent of a total of approximately $1,750,000, of which additional sum almost $1,000,000 has already been expended, thereby reducing the available revenues for corporate purposes and rendering it necessary to replenish the corporate fund in order to meet the payrolls of the City during the months of August, September and October, and until such time as the said money should be forthcoming; and

WHEREAS, The said offer and promise has since been reduced to writing and an instrument signed on behalf of seventeen of the said banks in the following form was submitted to the Corporation Counsel:

"CHICAGO, July 31, 1918.

"Honorable Samuel A. Ettelson, Corporation Counsel, City of Chicago, Illinois:

DEAR SIR—The undersigned banks have formed a syndicate which will purchase at their face amount vouchers of city employes for wages due upon the city payrolls payable in October, November and December, 1918, to the aggregate amount of $1,750,000, upon the following understanding:

(1) The respective city employes shall assign in form satisfactory to counsel for the syndicate their respective vouchers or claims against the City of Chicago which shall be for work actually performed by such employes for the City;

(2) All claims or vouchers so purchased shall represent salaries or wages actually earned by employes of the City under a proper and valid appropriation ordinance of the City Council;

(3) The City of Chicago shall agree that a suit or suits shall be at once instituted against the City of Chicago on the respective claims so purchased and that as there will be no legal or moral ground for defense to such claims, the appearance of the City will be promptly entered and all necessary action taken to procure the entry of proper and valid judgments against the City based upon the claims so acquired by or on behalf of the syndicate banks;

(4) It is understood that this action is taken solely for the purpose of enabling the City of Chicago to meet its obligations to its employes, and to enable these employes of the City to receive pay sufficient to keep them from actual privation, and it is expected that the City authorities in dealing with the matter will recognize that the syndicate banks have undertaken this proposition, not as a matter of profit, but as a public service to the community;

(5) The City Comptroller shall furnish a correct statement of the City's liabilities and of the debt limit of the City of Chicago, and the carrying out of this undertaking is conditioned upon the opinion of counsel for the syndicate that valid judgments will be obtainable against the City for the amounts of moneys so advanced to purchase the claims of the employes;

(6) As soon as it is legally and financially possible to do so, the City of Chicago is to undertake to liquidate the judgments which will be rendered under the terms of this agreement;

(7) The City of Chicago, through its officers and by action of the City Council, is to take any appropriate legal action which may be requested by counsel for the syndicate in order to carry out the conditions of this undertaking;

(8) It is understood that this undertaking may be presented to the City Council or any Committee thereof or any officer of the city for the purpose of inducing appropriate legal action to enable the city to meet its payrolls until such time as this undertaking to purchase the vouchers or claims of the employes shall become operative.
